MUSIC NOTES—St. Joseph’s Parish hosted a Mass Choir Christmas Concert last Sunday with standing room only! Here are some thoughts from our Choir Director, Bob Gaus: “Jane, Erin and I were overwhelmed with the quality of the sound, the blending and the performance. Alison Davy, our guest soloist, was tremendous in her rendition of “O Holy Night” and “Gesu Bambino”; and the Evangelical Ringers added a special dimension to our concert that was so appreciated. The audience response when the Mass choir sang said everything! Thanks to: Fr. Cyprien and Marc Warden for working on the sound; Kevin and Dorothy McHugh for putting up and taking down the bell boards (thanks to Fr. George who helped carry the boards up and down the stairs); Kin Chee for organizing 75 binders; Jane Touhey for her fantastic playing and Elise for stepping in on “See”; Erin’s presence and conducting were an inspiration to watch; the smiling singers; and Msgr. Desmond’s enthusiastic presence and beautiful words. Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for your efforts and participation!

Choir is heaven.” Bob Gaus
