MUSIC NOTES—St. Joseph's Parish hosted a Mass Choir Christmas Concert on Sunday, January 12, 2020, with standing room only! Here are some thoughts from our Choir Director, Bob Gaus: "Jane, Erin and I were overwhelmed with the quality of the sound, the blending and the performance. Alison Davy, our guest soloist, was tremendous in her rendition of "O Holy Night" and "Gesu Bambino"; and the Evangelical Ringers added a special dimension to our concert that was so appreciated. The audience response when the Mass choir sang said everything! Thanks to: Fr. Cyprien and Marc Warden for working on the sound; Kevin and Dorothy McHugh for putting up and taking down the bell boards (thanks to Fr. George who helped carry the boards up and down the stairs); Kin Chee for organizing 75 binders; Jane Touhey for her fantastic playing and Elise for stepping in on "See"; Erin's presence and conducting were an inspiration to watch; the smiling singers; and Msgr. Desmond's enthusiastic presence and beautiful words. Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for your efforts and participation!

Choir is heaven." Bob Gaus

THANK YOU to all who helped to remove and safely store away our Christmas decorations. You were a great help!!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS—are pleased to report that their 2019 Coats for Folks campaign was a success. They supplied 387 coats compared to 300 last year. Kingston Council #275 Knights of Columbus salutes you for your generous response to their Coats for Folks winter clothing drive!!
