Let Your Voice be Heard!

Each year in late January, Catholic Charities co-sponsors a day for people of faith to come together and learn how to carry our voices and values in to the public square. Along with Faith Action Network, we invite people to join us on Saturday, January 27, at St. Mark's Lutheran Church for the Eastern WA Legislative Advocacy Day. Among the presenters and topics covered will be:

- Bishop Emeritus William Skylstad, speaking on what it means to be involved in public policy from a faith perspective in these times
- Nadine Van Stone, Catholic Charities, speaking on challenges of and responses to homelessness
- Donna Christensen, lobbyist with the Washington State Catholic Conference
- Care of Creation
- Criminal Justice

We will hear about legislation in process in Olympia and how we can make our voices heard with elected officials. The Washington State Catholic Conference represents the Bishops of WA State in matters of public policy and has presented at this event for many years. The Fig Tree is the chief sponsor locally and asks for a $20 registration fee, which includes lunch. If at least 5 people come from one congregation, the fee drops to $15 per person
