Don't Miss Cataldo's Seussical Musical!

Horton the Elephant, the Cat in the Hat and all of your favorite Dr. Seuss characters spring to life onstage in Seussical JR., a fantastical musical extravaganza from Tony-winners, Lynn Ahrens and Stephen Flaherty. Transporting audiences from the Jungle of Nool to the Circus McGurkus, the Cat in the Hat narrates the story of Horton the Elephant, who discovers a speck of dust containing tiny people called the Whos.

Please join us on January 16 and 17 at 7pm at the Ferris High School Auditorium as the cast and crew of Cataldo and Ferris students take you on a very Seussical musical journey. Our very own Father Codd will star as the Grinch so this is an event you don't want to miss!

Tickets are available through show-tix4u.com starting January 7th. Tickets are $6.50 online and $7.50 at the door.

A Word from Father...

Dear Friends,

Welcome to 2019!

There is always plenty of advice given as a new year breaks over the horizon. President Trump tweeted this nugget of wisdom on New Year's Eve: "Calm down and enjoy the ride!" I'll work on the "calm down" part, but not so sure about "enjoying the ride," what with the new year beginning with a government shutdown, on-going conflicts over our own southern border, Putin building up troops on his Ukrainian border, Kim Il Jung still in charge of North Korea's nukes, Yemen being a humanitarian disaster, and maybe over twenty Democrats teasing that they may run for president this year and next. Yikes!

More helpful advice in these not-so-peaceful times comes from Pope Francis. January 1st is the World Day of Peace and for the occasion he offered us all the following message (excerpts only!):

Bringing peace is central to the mission of Christ's disciples. That peace is offered to all those men and women who long for peace amid the tragedies and violence that mark human history. The "house" of which Jesus speaks is every family, community, country and continent, in all their diversity and history. It is first and foremost each individual person, without distinction or discrimination. But it is also our "common home": the world in which God has placed us and which we are called to care for and cultivate.

Peace is like a delicate flower struggling to blossom on the stony ground of violence. We know that the thirst for power at any price leads to abuses and injustice. Politics is an essential means of building human community and institutions, but when political life is not seen as a form of service to society as a whole, it can become a means of oppression, marginalization and even destruction.

Peace, in effect, is the fruit of a great political project grounded in the mutual responsibility and interdependence of human beings. But it is also a challenge that demands to be taken up ever anew. It entails a conversion of heart and soul; it is both interior and communal; and it has three inseparable aspects:

— peace with oneself, rejecting inflexibility, anger and impatience; in the words of Saint Francis de Sales, showing "a bit of sweetness towards oneself" in order to offer "a bit of sweetness to others";

— peace with others: family members, friends, strangers, the poor and the suffering, being unafraid to encounter them and listen to what they have to say;

— peace with all creation, rediscovering the grandeur of God's gift and our individual and shared responsibility as inhabitants of this world, citizens and builders of the future.

May we all grow in sowing peace in this new year! We can all do better!

Grace and peace to you in 2019!

Fr. Kevin
