To the dear People of St. Martin de Porres,

It is hard saying Good Bye. For several weeks you may have heard rumors that Deacon Frank and Vera are moving away, but now the time has come to finally say those dreaded words. Yes, we have decided to move closer to our son and our grandchildren who live in Maryland, to give them a much needed helping hand.

It is fitting that Divine Mercy Sunday will be my last day in the Parish, for it was Divine Mercy that brought our family to Poughkeepsie and to St. Martin's so many years ago. It was Divine Mercy that bestowed on me the gift of Ordination to the Diaconate and given me the opportunity to serve you as Deacon these past 19 years.

We have shared so many different ministries together, built such lasting friendships, laughed together and cried together, for which we are so profoundly grateful.

We go with the consolation that in Christ we are one Body, united in the Communion of Saints, all striving to one day be in the kingdom that Jesus came to give us. We would love to see you if you are ever in the area. Our emails are deaconfrank@gmail.com and vshung02@gmail.com.

We will pray for you and we ask that you too will remember us in your prayer! And may Almighty God continue to shower His bountiful blessings on each one of you and on the Parish of St. Martin de Porres.

Yours in Christ,

Deacon Frank and Vera Hung
