Pastor's Corner

My Dear Parishioners,

In last week's column I mentioned the longevity of St. Sylvester Parish (soon to be 100 years old) and the number of generations of parish families still active here. Today I remain in 'numbers mode' as I happily report on the June 3rd celebration at the ten o'clock Mass. Ten of our parish's couples renewed their wedding vows and received a special blessing as we all celebrated their total of 560 years of marriage. The following parish couples celebrate anniversaries of 25 years or more during 2018:

Joseph and Gregoria Di Maria - 64 years
 John and Darlene Miles - 64 years
 Alfred and Betty Lyke - 63 years
 James and Connie Barrett - 62 years
 Edward and Jane Milza - 61 Years
 Roy and Rosemarie Garlisi - 60 years
 John and Carol Davila - 57 years
 Charles and Alma De Simone - 54 years
 Frank and Carmela Girardi - 50 years
 Christopher and Regina Giardina - 25 years

After Mass the anniversary couples continued the festivity with more than 50 invited family and friends at a luncheon in the Parish Hall where Frank Quinn had set up an area which looked like a private dining room. Jacob Samuel as 'Chef de jour', prepped and presented the menu gifted by the Lifestyles for the Disabled catering kitchens. Janet Samuel, with fine assistance from our Women's Guild, prepared the dining area and supervised all the 'front-of-house' requirements—where would we be without the skills and willing hands of our parish?

Parishioners who attended the June 3rd 12 noon Mass may now recognize why they may have encountered some problems as they attempted to park cars before Mass. The ten o'clock Liturgy was, by necessity, longer than usual, and the invited family and friends increased our usual congregation. Thank you for your understanding and

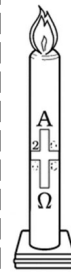

Keep smiling,

Fr. Jacob

"...they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worth of Himself."

BOY SCOUTS

ST. SYLVESTER TROOP and Cub Pack 85

At their May 22nd meeting in St. Sylvester's Parish Hall, Boy Scout Pack and Troop 85 had professional pictures taken. All Cubs and Scouts were in the Class A uniform with all the ranks and merit badge sashes up-to-date. A group Pack and Troop picture was taken and photo packages will be made available.

St. Sylvester Parish will receive copies for display in the Parish Hall or church vestibule.
