Pastor's Corner

My Dear Parishioners,

The disciples were cowering behind locked doors. Fear has a way of imprisoning, away from the outer world, but also from our inner world, taking away our freedom to hope, imagine, and dream. We can become comfortable working in cramped spaces, isolated and unattached, removed from life and contact with others. But then along comes the risen Lord, arms outstretched, heart wide open, bearing gifts to transform our lives. The first gift of the risen Lord is peace (shalom), which translates as all good things, physically, mentally, and spiritually—all that is needed to be alive inside. This peace is a gift that the world cannot give.

The second gift is a mission: we are sent, as Jesus was sent, by the Father. Where? To the world. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world but in order that the world might be saved through him" (John 3:16-17). Now the Son sends the disciples—us!—to bring life.

The third gift is the Holy Spirit, given for the forgiveness of sins. The Holy Spirit is the gift of the Father and the Son, given to us at baptism, again at confirmation, and whose gifts are given to the church and its members for the good of all, within and outside the church. Primary among these gifts is the gift of forgiveness.

To pray about this during the week, read the Sequence before the Gospel used at Mass for Pentecost —"Come, Holy Spirit, come!" Notice especially the request for healing, refreshment, and cleansing. Good petitions for these days.

Keep smiling,

Fr. Jacob

PENTECOST SEQUENCE: VENI, SANCTE SPIRITUS

(Chanted at Mass on Pentecost Sunday.)

Come, Holy Spirit, come!
And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!
Come, Father of the poor!
Come, source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine.
You, of comforters the best;
You, the soul's most welcome guest;
Sweet refreshment here below;
In our labor, rest most sweet;
Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.
O most blessed Light divine,
Shine within these hearts of yours,
And our inmost being fill!
Where you are not, we have naught,
Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of ill.
Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour your dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away:
Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.
On the faithful, who adore
And confess you, evermore
In your sevenfold gift descend;
Give them virtue's sure reward;
Give them your salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end. Amen. Alleluia.

*"...they shall be greatly blessed,
because God tried them
and found them worthy of Himself."*

Maryanne Stapleton
has returned to the Lord's embrace.

WHAT IS A NOVENA?

A novena is a nine day period of private or public prayer to obtain special graces, to implore special favors, or make special petitions.

WHEN WAS THE 1ST NOVENA PRAYED?

The apostles and disciples, gathered in frightened secrecy during the 9 days between the Lord's Ascension and the coming of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost, offered prayers and supplications for courage and spiritual strength.
