TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8

Moses tells the people to always observe the statutes God has given them, without adding or subtracting from these laws. He reminds them that the law is just, and that any nation who heard their statutes would consider them a wise nation.

Second Reading: James 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27

James discusses the gifts that God has given to all people and implores them to respond by welcoming the words of truth that can save them. He emphasizes that through good deeds and pure conduct, our faith in God is proven to him.

Gospel: Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

The Pharisees observed some of Jesus' disciples eating without first purifying their hands and ask the disciples why they are going against their ancestor's traditions. Jesus responds that nothing from the outside can make a person impure. The only true evil, acts such as fornication, murder, and greed among others, come from within and make a person impure.

VOCATION VIEW

As each new school year begins, new knowledge is handed on to the next generation. Customs accumulate over the years which sometimes get confused with real values. Who can speak clearly and freshly God's central commandment: Love thy neighbor as thyself? If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priesthood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

From Cardinal Dolan...

Dear friends in the Lord:

Getting the care we need to keep ourselves and those we love healthy, safe, and enjoying life can be a huge challenge. Finding a trusted guide who will take the time to explain the options and help people access the programs and services they are eligible for can be even harder. Thankfully, our excellent archdiocesan healthcare ministry, ArchCare, can help.

The dedicated team of health and social service professionals who staff ArchCare's Care Navigation Center can provide information about which organizations and agencies offer the services that best meet your needs, answer questions about Medicare and Medicaid coverage, and suggest options you may not even know about. If ArchCare's own wide range of services can't assist, a "Care Navigator" will be happy to provide information about other resources located right in your area, including those offered by Catholic Charities and other groups. Help from a "Care Navigator" is free of charge, and extends to questions about such things as:

- Housing for Seniors and Disabled Persons
- Health-Related Legal and Financial Issues
- Caregiver Support Groups
- Access to Healthcare
- Food and Nutrition
- Dementia Care
- Transportation Options
- Volunteer Opportunities

Whether you are seeking help for yourself or a loved one, are concerned about a neighbor or friend, or just want to find out about programs that may be available to you, ArchCare's Care Navigators stand ready to serve with patience, compassion and kindness.

ArchCare Care Navigation Center
(855) 951-CARE (TTY/TDD: 711)
8am to 8pm, seven days a week

ArchCare also offers some wonderful community resources designed to ease the stress of caring for another person. Go to www.archcare.org/community-resources to learn more.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
