BLESSING OF ANIMALS

Sunday, October 4th is the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, Patron Saint of All Animals. In honor of St. Francis, we will be blessing animals at 4:00pm in the Church parking lot. Please bring a donation of dog or cat food which will be given to various rescue groups on Staten Island.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Genesis 2:18-24

God created many different animals in an attempt to make a suitable partner for the first man. Then he took a rib from the man as he slept and built it up into a woman. At last God had created someone who equaled the man, as she was “bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh” and they proved to be suitable partners for each other.

Second Reading: Hebrews 2:9-11

This passage describes how Jesus will become perfect through his suffering. It also reminds us that Jesus’ Father is our Father as well, making him unashamed to call us his brothers and sisters.

Gospel: Mark 10:2-16

The people began to ask Jesus if it was acceptable for a man to divorce his wife. Jesus tells them that two people who have been joined together by God should not be separated. People began bringing their children to Jesus, but the disciples tried to send them away. Jesus grew angry and told his disciples to allow the children to come to him.

Matrimony, a beautiful vocation, so misused today. Celibacy, a beautiful gift, so misunderstood today. Whether we do God’s work in pairs or as a single person, or in a community, we do God’s work because He calls us. ## From the Pastor's Desk...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

What a week of blessings for us in the United States with the presence of Holy Father Pope Francis! Our Cardinal put it so beautifully, "Papa Francisco, we pray in every liturgy every day for you and with you and today you are here with us." His presence unified us as one family of God no matter what our differences are. It was very much visible in our New York City. Republicans and Democrats, Catholics and other faiths, the rich and the poor, all came together for the Holy Father. We have to thank everyone involved in making it a grand success and a moment of grace for our nation and our city. Our Cardinal Dolan deserves all the credit in the world, so also our secret service, police officers, firefighters, elected officials and one and all. I had the privilege to be at the Cathedral for the Pope's vespers and blessing of the renovated Cathedral and all of us, priests, deacons, staff and some parishioners were at the Garden for the Mass. During the Mass I united with all of you in praying for blessings. Holy Father's last sentence at the Garden was, "Please do not forget to pray for me." Let us keep praying for him always.

When you read this message I will be in Nigeria with Fr. Charles' Bishop, Most Rev. Joseph Bagobiri and his family. During my vacation last year I visited Fr. Joselin's family and thanked them for Fr. Joselin. This year as I promised, I am going to Nigeria to visit Fr. Charles' family and thank them for his life and ministry to us. Then I will go to India to stay with my brother Bishop Francis and we both have a plan to go home and offer a Mass for my mom and visit her tomb. During my absence Fr. Charles and Fr. Joselin will take care of the parish. Already I hear that they are planning for block parties and nights-out. Please keep an eye on these holy priests.

I hope all of you are happy with the new seat cushions and kneelers. They are the last pieces of our renovation project for the Church. Slowly but steadily we got everything done in the best way possible without debt. I thank all of you for your generosity to our church, school and parish. For the next six years we need to come up with plans to reenergize our spiritual life and complete the Convent renovation. As always, God will help us.

God Bless You,
Fr. Pancrose

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi Feast Day – October 4th

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light,
and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.
