TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14

God became very angry with the Israelites for worshipping a molten calf and making sacrifices to it. The people had so quickly violated his commandments that he planned to destroy them. But Moses pleaded with God for mercy and God relented.

Second Reading: 1 Timothy 1:12-17

Paul considered himself a former blasphemer and persecutor, and expressed his gratitude for the mercy Jesus showed him. Paul felt that he was a perfect example of Jesus' patience toward sinners and his desire to reconcile them with God.

Gospel: Luke 15:1-32

The Pharisees grew angry because of the Jesus' compassion toward sinners. In response, Jesus tells of a son who squandered his inheritance, then returned to his father and asked to be treated as a hired hand. The father rejoiced, angering his older and more obedient son. The father explained that everything he owned belonged to his older son; but he had to rejoice for the son who was lost and had been found.

From the Pastor's Desk...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

It is always a blessing when Bishops and Major Superiors of Religious Orders visit us. We enjoyed the visits of Bishop John O'Hara, my brother Bishop Francis Kalist and Fr. Charles' Bishop Joseph Bagobiri. This past week we had the blessing of Very Rev. Fr. Arul Raj, Fr. Joselin's Religious Order Founder visiting us from Monday to Friday. On Friday he met with His Eminence Cardinal Dolan and left for India. I was glad to hear his first remark after his meeting with our 7 am Mass attendees on Tuesday, "Fr. Pancrose you have very loving parishioners." He was very pleased with his visit and felt happy with the service Fr. Joselin gives to our parish.

On Thursday our School reopened for the school year 2016-17. It was so good seeing all our teachers and children back in school. I missed them a lot during the summer. Welcome to all teachers and children. Please pray every day that our children are well formed in faith and education in our school. Very soon our Religious Education children will begin their year. May it be a very blessed year for all our children.

Often I hear people say that Church is all about money. Some complain that there are so many second collections and always there is a request for money. There is some truth to it and I will write in detail about it next week. Now I want everyone to know that we have a great opportunity to begin the school year with our annual Parish Mission. Six months ago some of our parishioners approached me to get Rev. Fr. Michael Sullivan, one of the well-known Augustinian retreat preachers to preach our Annual Parish Mission. I immediately contacted Villanova Augustinians and bought one of the CDs of Fr. Michael preaching a retreat for 1500 people. I listened to the CD and it was captivating. I called to book him and he was available only for Columbus Day weekend. All other weekends are booked well in advance. I decided to get him. Some of you may plan to go away when you get a few days together. Please mark your calendar to attend this parish mission and benefit from his preaching.

God bless you
Fr. Pancrose
