TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:7-9

In this particularly poetic passage, Jeremiah complains that while teaching the Lord's word, he is subjected to insults and derision. He determines to remain silent, but he cannot because the desire to speak the Lord's name is "like a fire burning in my heart."

Second Reading: Romans: 12:1-2

Paul tells the Christians to make sacrifices to avoid the trappings of the times, and to do God's will.

Gospel: Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus tries to make his disciples realize that by following him, they will endure suffering, degradation, and death. He tells them that they must deny themselves and take up the cross in order to be his disciples.

Mary, Mother of Jesus

Mary, Mother of Jesus, give me your heart So beautiful, so pure so immaculate, so full of love and humility that I may be able to receive Jesus in the Bread of Life, love Him as you loved Him, and serve Him as you served Him in the distressing disguise of the poorest of the poor. Amen.

Blessed Teresa of Calcutta

From Cardinal Dolan ...

Dear friends in the Lord:

Today, our archdiocese takes up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal (CHMA), and I ask that you prayerfully consider participating. This Appeal supports the (arch)dioceses here in our own country that struggle to make ends meet and to serve all of the needs of their parishioners. It is through your generosity that many churches are able to keep their doors open and provide essential pastoral services.

The Diocese of Laredo is located in southern Texas, along the Texas-Mexico border. Many in this diocese live on the margins of society, either as immigrants or as people living in poverty, and it is a challenge for the diocese to keep up with the needs of its people. With your contributions to the Catholic Home Missions Appeal, the diocese reaches out to some of the most marginalized people---those in prison. Many detainees are returning to the Catholic faith and are in need of the Lord's mercy. Your gifts provide liturgical and educational supplies, help priests offer the Eucharist and other sacraments, and support volunteers' and ministers' outreach to more than 10,000 men and women in detention facilities. Your generosity brings Christ's message of love, compassion, and reconciliation to this often forgotten population.

Your support of this Appeal makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the Appeal this year. To learn more about the Appeal and those who benefit from it, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Thank You for strengthening the Church at home.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,

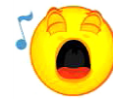

Faithfully in Christ,
+ Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

Devastation caused by Hurricane Harvey

Many people in the Gulf Coast of Texas are reeling from the devastation caused by Hurricane Harvey. Thousands have evacuated their homes, many of which have been damaged or destroyed. The recovery process is going to be a long and painful one. We have not forgotten the support we received during Hurricane Sandy from all over the nation. As soon as we get some directions from the Archdiocese we will organize assistance. Until then let support these suffering people with our prayers.

Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Sept. 8th)

When you follow her; you will not go astray;
When you pray to her, You will not despair;
When you think of her, You will not err;
When she holds you up, You will not fail;
When she protects you, You will not fear;
When she leads you, You will not be fatigued;
When she favors you, You will arrive safely.
She keeps her Son from striking us;
She keeps the devil from hurting us;
She keeps our virtues from escaping us;
She keeps our merits from being destroyed;
She keeps our graces from being lost. -St. Bernard.
