THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

This reading relates how death of the spirit entered the world by the envy of the devil, but those not in his possession will not experience it.

Second Reading: II Corinthians 8:7,9,13-15

Paul exhorts the Corinthians to contribute to the poor of the Jerusalem church in accordance with their means. He explains that if people help each other, they will one day be helped when they are needy.

Gospel: Mark 5:21-43

“Do not be afraid, only have faith.” Jesus’ power over sickness and death requires absolute trust and absence of fear.

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 1, 2018

Life can remind us of life eternal; death can remind us of death eternal! Each day we must choose to live or die, physically or spiritually. And what we do daily builds us up or tears us down. Pray for proclaimers of life! If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priest-hood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM “The World Needs Heroes”

A Novena

Do you have a particular concern or an upcoming challenge? A novena – a prayer offered over nine consecutive days in preparation for a feast day or a special need – is a great way to ask for God’s particular help.

Reflection July 4th 2017

University of ND

Today, Americans celebrate Independence Day, commemorating the courage of a band of leaders from the original 13 colonies who risked their lives by signing a document the occupying British would regard as unmistakably treasonous. Despite the threat of their lands being taken, their families imprisoned, and their own lives cut short, still they took pen in hand and added their name to the list of those whose desire for freedom overcame that choking fear.

Their experience demonstrates the unique relationship between fear, faith, and freedom also experienced by the apostles on that stormy sea (and by most of us in the course of every day). It takes faith to overcome the fear that impedes our path to freedom, but that faith can be hard to come by, especially if fear has taken hold of our hearts and dimmed our view of the future.

Father Hesburgh once wrote about faith: "In the broader world of man's total voyage through time to eternity, faith is not only a gracious companion, but an essential guide." While it can be useful (it's appropriate to fear a tiger loose in the neighborhood), fear is neither gracious nor an essential guide. Instead, fear obscures the blessings God has for us and shows our progress toward fulfillment.

If you struggle with fear today, be it fear for the wellbeing of your family, the health of your business, or the future of our country, remember that we can declare independence from fear in the name of our advocate: Jesus himself. Our release from the bonds of fear won't be instantaneous because the roots of fear extend deep into our lives. However, Jesus is on this boat, on the journey of life with us, and he does respond to our calls. When we cry out to him in faith and prayer, he will respond. His answer may not come in our desired timeframe or align with our precise plan, but it will carry the power of an advocate powerful enough to calm the winds and sea on the way to defeating death itself.

A life on the other side of fear, dwelling in faith, is true freedom.

Prayer for our Nation (U.S.A)

God our Father, Giver of life, we entrust the United States of America to Your loving care. You are the rock on which this nation was founded. You alone are the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Reclaim this land for Your glory and dwell among Your people. Send Your Spirit to touch the hearts of our nation's leaders. Open their minds to the great worth of human life and the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Remind Your people that true happiness is rooted in seeking and doing Your will. Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, Patroness of our land, grant us the courage to reject the "culture of death." Lead us into a new millennium of life. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

This Day

Lord, thank You for another day, within this life of mine. Give me the strength to live it well, whatever I may find.

Bestow from Your abundance, whatever I may lack to use the hours wisely, for I cannot have them back.

Lord, thank You for another day, in which to make amends for little slights or petty words, inflicted on my friends.

For sometimes losing patience, with problems that I find, for seeing faults in other lives, but not the ones in mine.

Lord, thank You for another chance, in which to try to be a little more deserving of the gifts you've given me.

For yesterday is over, and tomorrow's far away. And I remain committed, to the good I do today!
