FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Ezekiel 2:2-5

Ezekiel is moved to respond to the call of God and to accentuate his teaching with a direct reference to the Word of God.

Second Reading: II Corinthians 12:7-10

Paul had questioned the value of his suffering, and God replied, "My grace is enough for you, for strength is made perfect in weakness." Paul then realized that although he was weak against persecution, he was strong in faith.

Gospel: Mark 6:1-6a

Jesus could do little for those in his own part of the country, for their lack of faith in him was so great. Therefore, he spent much of his time teaching in neighboring villages instead.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 8, 2018

Yes, absolutely, we should stand up for what we believe in. No, positively, we will not always succeed. Yes, certainly, it is more important to try than to succeed. Yes, certainly, it is more important to try than to succeed. No, Jesus did not look successful on the cross. Yes, you could give it a TRY. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priest-hood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

BREAD AND WINE & SANCTUARY LIGHT

HOLY MASS WITH PRIESTLY ORDINATIONS: HOMILY OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS

Vatican Basilica
Sunday, 22 April 2018

Dearest Brothers and Sisters,

Our sons have been called to the order of priests. Let us consider the position to which they are to be promoted in the Church. It is true that the Lord Jesus is the High Priest of the New Testament, and God has also made his entire people a royal priesthood in Christ. But Jesus Christ also chose some of his followers to carry out publicly in the Church a priestly ministry in his name on behalf of mankind, continuing his personal mission as teacher, priest and shepherd.

Indeed, for this reason he was sent by the Father, and he in turn sent into the world the Apostles, and then the Bishops and their successors. Priests are co-workers of the order of Bishops, to whom they are joined in the priestly office and are called to serve the People of God.

Our brothers have seriously considered this step, and are now to be ordained to priesthood in the presbyterial order. They are to serve Christ the Teacher, Priest, and Shepherd, in making the Body of Christ, which is the Church, grow into the People of God, a holy temple of the Spirit.

They are called to be molded into the likeness of Christ, the Supreme and Eternal Priest. By consecration, they will be made true priests of the New Testament, and in this role, sharing in the priesthood of their Bishop, to preach the Gospel, sustain God's people, and preside at rites of worship, above all the celebration of the Lord's sacrifice.

My beloved sons and brothers, you are now to be advanced to the order of the presbyterate. You must apply your energies to the duty of teaching in the name of Christ, the chief Teacher. Share with all mankind the Word of God you received with joy. Read and meditate on the Word of the Lord, believe what you read, teach what you believe, and put into practice what you teach.

Let the doctrine you teach be true nourishment for the People of God. Let the example of your life attract the followers of Christ so that by word and action you may build up the House of God which is the Church. In the same way you must continue the sanctifying work of Christ. The spiritual sacrifice of the faithful will be perfected through your ministry, united to Christ's sacrifice, and through your hands be offered sacramentally on the altar in celebration of the Holy Mysteries.

Know what you are doing and imitate the mystery you celebrate. In memory of the Lord's death and Resurrection, carry Christ's death within you and walk with him in the newness of life.

When you baptize you will bring new men and women into the People of God. In the Sacrament of Penance, you will forgive sins in the name of Christ and the Church. And here I would like to pause to implore you: please do not tire of being merciful. Think about your sins, about your miseries which Jesus forgives. Be merciful. With holy oil you will relieve and console the sick. You will celebrate the liturgy and offer thanks and praise to God throughout the day, praying not only for the People of God but for the whole of humanity.

Remember that you are chosen from among mankind and appointed to act in their favor by attending to the things of God. Carry out the work of Christ's ministry with genuine joy and love, seeking only to please God and not yourselves and others, nor seeking other interests. Only at the service of God, for the good of the holy faithful People of God.

Finally, conscious of sharing in the work of Christ, the Head and Shepherd of the Church, and united with the Bishop and subject to him, seek to bring the faithful together into a unified family and to lead them effectively to God the Father, through Christ and in the Holy Spirit. Always keep in mind the example of the Good Shepherd who came not to be served but to serve, and to seek out and rescue those who were lost.

A Heart Beloved

Often we think of our participation at Mass as something we do—our actions, our gestures, our offerings. True, we are invited to actively participate in the liturgy, but let us refocus our attention for a moment on what Jesus does in the liturgy.

Jesus presided at the Last Supper. Jesus gave himself to his beloved apostles in Holy Communion. Jesus enjoined his apostles, "Do this in memory of me" (Luke 22:19). Jesus continues to give himself to us in Eucharist. And Jesus renews his death for our salvation at each Mass. Our words, our gestures, our offerings—important as they are—are but our responses to this loving Jesus.

To the small child who receives him, Jesus says, "I love you in your innocence; you are mine." To the teenager Jesus says, "I love you, especially during these years of change and confusion. When you think no one else loves you, remember—I do." To the married couple he says, "I love you. Keep my love as part of your love." To the religious sisters and brothers he says, "We share a very special deep love." To the lonely Jesus says, "I love you. I am your friend." To the elderly he says, "I love you. You have been faithful to me these many years. Hang on a bit longer. I have a place for you in my kingdom." To each one, Jesus speaks of his love.

At Communion time, we should listen for the words that Jesus speaks to us. Eucharist is his idea; he wants to come to us and put his arms around us. He wants us to share that love—with him, with whom he loves. So often we think we need to use this time to talk to Jesus. But we also need to take time to listen to him tell us how much he loves us, to tell us how he has blessed us. He wants us to listen.

Love is the theme of the Bible; love is the reason for Jesus' life and death; love is the message of the Mass. When Jesus comes to us in Eucharist, he comes in love.

Prayer for Going on Vacation

Loving Father, during this time of rest and relaxation, please repair in me whatever is weary or broken, and revive my drooping spirit. Let this vacation be a graced time of recollection and rejuvenation, of deeper self-awareness and eager self-giving. May it be an occasion of refreshment and reinvigoration—a time to reclaim my friendship with Jesus Christ, who is our Lord now and forever. Amen.

Father Peter John Cameron, O.P.
