THE 2019 MASS BOOK IS OPEN

Mass offering is to be made when the Mass is arranged in the Rectory during office hours. Weekend Masses and Holy Days of Obligation Masses are still $25 and Monday through Saturday morning Masses are $15.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time September 30, 2018

Some people do not respond to God's call because they feel they are not worthy to do God's work. And they are not; nobody is. But still God calls. There is enough ministry for many more. Answer God's call. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priest-hood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Numbers 11:25-29

Two men not considered prophets by the people began to prophesize, and this offended those who did not feel they were true prophets. But Moses explained that prophets are chosen by God, not the people.

Second Reading: James 5:1-6

James speaks out strongly against people who become rich by cheating their workers. He claims the wealth they have dishonestly collected will be a testimony against them on judgment day.

Gospel: Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

Jesus explains to his disciples that it is acceptable for a person who is not part of their group to speak in his name, but he does warn them that anyone who tries to lead his followers astray will be severely punished. Jesus also discusses personal failing and the importance of taking whatever steps are necessary to avoid them.

Our Sanctuary Lamp

The Sanctuary Lamp, which is next to our Tabernacle, is a sign of the Real Presence of Jesus, the Light of the World, in our Parish Church. In accordance with tradition, this candle may be dedicated in honor or in memory of a particular person or persons, or for a special intention. The customary offering for this weekly dedication is $20. There are several dates still open for dedication in October through December 2018 and the new book is open for 2019. Anyone who would like to make arrangements for dedicating the Sanctuary Lamp should contact the Parish Office.

BREAD AND WINE

We are accepting offerings for the Bread and Wine for the week in memory of your loved ones. The customary offering for this weekly dedication is $20. Any questions, please call the Parish office 718-351-1093.

The Bread and Wine for this week are donated in loving memory of Rita Hartnett requested by Anne Galli.

The Cenacle of Life Prayer Group meets every Friday at 4:00PM in the Church to recite the Rosary

From the Pastor's Desk ...

Dear Parishioners, As Fr. Charles leaves to take a new assignment at Sacred Heart Church in Sufferin, New York, we wish him God's blessings and promise our prayers. We express our sincere gratitude to Fr. Charles for his dedicated service to our parish family. Looking forward to seeing you all at his reception.

I hope you all come to the parish mission October 27 to 30th. Please invite your family and friends to participate in this wonderful spiritual renewal program. I promise you won't regret it.

A word of thanks to all the parishioners who are actively involved in our various parish ministries, which impact the lives of many people. Special thanks to those parishioners who sacrificially and regularly make their financial contribution to our parish by tithing.

Stewardship is an act of thanks giving to God who continues to bless us with time, skills, health and wealth. By sharing these blessings with God's other children in, as well as outside of the parish, we are returning to God what is due to Him, for He dwells in each of us.

Stewardship is the model given by Jesus: He generously gave Himself in the service of others and offered his life for all of us. By our stewardship, we make a humble return of that sacrificial love.

By faithful stewardship in our parish, we are helping our own brothers and sisters, because by Baptism we are all made the children of the same Heavenly Father and brothers and sisters of Jesus our Lord and Savior.

Stewardship by sharing is the ultimate criterion for reward or punishment on the day of the Last Judgment. (Mt 25: 31 ff: The six questions by Jesus the judge on the day of the Last Judgment (Did you share food, drink, clothing, home, mercy and loving service?), concern our stewardship of His blessings to us.

Generosity to God and our neighbors is the source and means of additional blessing from God: Luke 6:38: "Give, and gifts will be given to you, a good measure, packed together, shaken down and overflowing, will be poured into your lap."

Good stewardship is the sign of a dynamic and growing parish community radiating true Christian charity, not only within parish boundaries, but in the rest of the community as well.

Stewardship fulfills a basic psychological need in human beings. God has created us with external organs and senses precisely to reach out to others. They are meant to be our own extensions and God's extensions to reach out to others. Psychologically, the need of the giver to give is greater than the need of the receiver to receive. Stewardship widens our vision, broadens and softens our hearts and sanctifies our lives.

Fr. Dominic.

Stewardship Prayer

My Church is composed of people like me.

I help make it what it is.

It will be friendly, if I am.

Its pews will be filled if I help fill them.

It will do great work, if I work.

It will make generous gifts to many causes,
if I am a generous giver.

It will bring other people into its worship and fellowship, if I invite and bring them.

It will be a church of loyalty and love,
of fearlessness and faith,

and a church with a noble spirit,

if I, who make it what it is,

am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with the help of God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my church to be.
