16th Sunday in Ordinary Time July 21, 2019

How enjoyable to sit and talk with a friend. How vocational to sit and talk with your friend Jesus. Take time just to BE WITH Jesus. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priest-hood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Genesis 18:1-10a

The Lord appeared to Abraham, who saw three men standing near his tent. Sensing they were messengers, he hurriedly brought them food and water to refresh themselves. Upon leaving, the men told him that they would visit in a year, at which time his childless wife Sarah would have a son.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:24-28

Paul discusses the suffering Christ endured for his Church. He describes his willingness to also endure suffering in Jesus' name. Paul hopes that through his sacrifices, many people will become complete in Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 10:38-42

Jesus was welcomed into the home of a woman named Martha. She complained to Jesus that her sister Mary sat listening to him instead of helping with the tasks of entertaining. Jesus told Martha that her sister had chosen the more important task, and should be allowed to listen.

The customary offering for this weekly dedication is $20. There are several dates still open for dedication in 2019 Book. From the Pastor's Desk ...

The central themes of today's readings are the importance of hospitality in Christian life and the necessity of listening to God before acting. The key to the Christian life is setting priorities: Jesus Christ first, then everything else. The only way really to learn that lesson is to spend some time every day, "sitting at the feet of Jesus." We need to recharge our spiritual batteries: We should put aside the work we do for the Lord in serving others and just spend some time being with Him, talking to Him and listening to Him, fully aware of His holy presence in our souls. We may also recharge our spiritual energy by means of our personal and family prayers, our meditative reading of the Bible and our participation in the celebration of the Holy Mass. Martha has become a symbol of action-oriented, responsible people who get the job done. Our world and our parish churches need such dynamic and generous men, women, boys and girls. We need them to sing in the choir, to help in the Church, to teach in the catechism, to visit the sick and the shut-ins and to serve in all other ministries of our parish community.

The hospitality of Martha to Jesus is an invitation to us all that we be a hospitable parish family, when you meet new people introduce yourself to them and express your gratitude in worshipping God with them.

Participating in the donuts Sundays is a great way to meet your fellow parishioners and guests. This is a great opportunity to the share Jesus with your parish family on August 22; the details are in the bulletin. Also, please mark your calendars to spend a day of reflection with us on September 14th.

Our lower church and hall are in the process of being restored from the flood damage. Insurance has covered a portion of the damage, and work still needs to be done in the bathroom. Anyone who could shed light and wisdom to find a permanent solution would be greatly appreciated to help our parish.

Continue to enjoy the summer and remain safe. May God continue to bless His beloved family- our Parish. Kindly pray an Our Father and Hail Mary daily for all our parishioners and all those who visit us, that we all become Jesus blessing to each other. Mary Queen of Peace pray for us.

Fr. Dominic.

What is prayer all about?

Clement of Alexandria, a popular teacher of the early Church, put it simply: "Prayer is conversation with God." Like any conversation, it goes both ways. We talk to God, and He talks to us. God loves us more than we can imagine. He wants us to get to know and love Him as a Father. Like any loving parent, He wants to spend time talking with His children.

What Kind of conversation am I supposed to have?

Think of it this way: Imagine that someone saved your life through an act of great personal sacrifice. What kind of conversation would you want to have with that kind of Benefactor?

You would no doubt want to offer an earnest thank you. You would be eager to praise the person's kindness, generosity, and selflessness. You would probably ask, "How can I ever repay you?"

Now think about what God has done for us. He created us and gives us life. Every good gift we have is from Him. When the human race turned away from Him and lost its way because of sin, He made the most precious sacrifice possible to save us and bring us back to Himself: He sent His Own Son, Jesus Christ, to die for us.

What kind of conversation should you have with that kind of Benefactor? For starters, you can express to Him sincere praise and thanks.

Doesn't prayer include asking God for something?

Of course! Think of a small child who is hungry. If the child comes to Daddy asking for food, he's delighted to answer that request. And if human fathers, Jesus reminded us, know how to give good gifts to their children when asked, "how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!" (Matthew 7:9-11).

In fact, most of the Our Father is devoted to this important aspect of prayer: petition. We ask God to provide for us ("our daily bread"), guide us ("lead us not into temptation"), and protect us ("deliver us from evil"). He cares about us, and He's delighted to answer our prayers. "Have no anxiety about anything," St. Paul insisted, "but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God" (Philippians 4:6). Just tell God what you need.

For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and love, embracing both trial and joy.

-- St. Therese of Lisieux
