30th Sunday in Ordinary Time Oct. 27, 2019

If you exalt yourself, what do you leave for God to give you? Rather, listen to God's voice. Doing His will is all you need to do. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priest-hood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

Thirtieth SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

God is just and does not show favoritism, but hears the prayers of everyone. Anyone who serves God, no matter how lowly his position here on earth, will be heard and answered.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

Paul writes to Timothy that he thinks his mission is near the end, and he is glad his faith is still strong. Paul hopes that all nations will hear the gospel. But, if he is executed as he anticipates, he is sure he will live forever in heaven.

Gospel: Luke 18:9-14

Jesus tells a parable about a Pharisee who went to the temple, and offered up a prayer of thanks because he was not a sinner like the tax collector who was also there to pray. The tax collector was far more humble, acknowledging his sins, and asking forgiveness for them. Jesus said the tax collector's prayer would be heard because, "Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, while he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Our Sanctuary Lamp

The Sanctuary Lamp, which is next to our Tabernacle, is a sign of the Real Presence of Jesus, the Light of the World, in our Parish Church. In accordance with tradition, this candle may be dedicated in honor or in memory of a particular person or persons, or for a special intention. The customary offering for this weekly dedication is $20. Anyone who would like to plan for dedicating the Sanctuary Lamp should contact the Parish Office.

The Sanctuary Light for this week burns in loving memory of Marie and Carmine Taverna requested by Robert Taverna.

BREAD AND WINE

We are accepting offerings for the Bread and Wine for the week in memory of your loved ones. The customary offering for this weekly dedication is $20. Any questions, please call the Parish office 718-351-1093.

The Bread and Wine for this week are donated in loving memory of Marie and Carmine Taverna requested by Robert Taverna.

Our life should be woven through and through with faith and generosity

- Blessed Raphaela Mary (1850-1925)

From the Pastor's Desk ...

The central theme of today's Gospel is that true humility and repentance for our sins must be the hallmark of our prayers. However, the central focus of today's parable is not on prayer itself, but rather on the evil of pride, the need for true humility and the role of God's grace in our salvation.

Our pastoral team would like to visit the home bound on every First Friday. This is a very important ministry for our parish. Sr. Madeleine Werner CSJB has agreed to be on our team. Kindly call the parish office to notify us of anyone who is home bound from our parish community or if you know anyone from our parish needing any spiritual support, a visit from the priests/deacons, Sr. Madeleine Werner. We feel this would be an honor for us to bring communion and healing sacraments to them.

November is the month of remembering. Especially during All Souls day Masses we offer special remembrance and prayers. This is a great teaching of the church for praying and offering sacrifice for the beloved departed souls. I strongly encourage you to attend more weekday masses if possible to pray for all especially for the departed souls.

Our Health screening Ministry would like to begin blood pressure checkups. We would appreciate hearing from anyone within our community in the medical profession who is willing to help, please contact the parish office. Two persons of our parish family are willing to assist. It is a blessing to share your special talent with our community.

His eminence Cardinal Timothy M. Dolan would like our parish to look into the spiritual needs our Hispanic brothers and sisters. To start with we are looking into a bilingual mass. There is a greater need for it. With every one's blessing and assistance, the 7 pm mass on Saturday could be a lingual mass?

Thank you for your generosity, love and blessings for our parish family, and for making our parish a joyful and prayerful community. Kindly continue to pray an Our Father and Hail Mary daily for all our parishioners and all those who visit us, that we all become Jesus blessing to each other. Mary Queen of Peace - pray for us.

Fr. Dominic

World Mission Sunday 2019

Thanks for your participation!

Thank you for answering your baptismal call to witness for mission on World Mission Sunday!

Our parish offered $2,066.00 for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for the missionary work of the Church – a real blessing for the Missions! Please continue to pray for missionaries, and for the people to whom they bring the “Good News” of Jesus. May God bless you for your generous missionary spirit!

You may stay connected year-round to the Pope’s missions, continuing the commitment of World Mission Sunday, by visiting MISSIO.org.

ALL SOULS DAY MASS ON NOVEMBER 2nd

Our Lady Queen of Peace Parish is celebrating a Memorial Mass on Saturday, November 2nd at the 7pm for all the faithful departed souls whose funerals were held from our Church this past year. Their names will be read. All are invited to come pray for them.

VISITS TO THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

Please contact the rectory if you know of anyone who is sick at home or in the hospital and or homebound who would like a visit from one of the priests or deacons at Our Lady Queen of Peace Church. Please call 718-351-1093 or email olqpchurch@verizon.net.

THE 2020 MASS BOOK IS OPEN

Mass offering is to be made when the Mass is arranged in the Rectory during office hours.
Weekend Masses and Holy Days of Obligation Masses are still $25 and Monday through Saturday morning Masses are $15.

FOOD PANTRY

We will be collecting all non-perishable food items and household items –e.g. soap, bleach, detergent, etc. on the first Sunday of each month after all the Masses. These items can be left inside the parking lot entrance to the church on that Sunday only. The food collected will be donated to various food pantries.

Thank You

A huge thank you to John Curatola, owner of Rainbow International and Curatola Construction.

Our Lady of Lourdes suffered roof damage recently. I mentioned it to John, and like last year with the front doors, John sent a crew over to repair and replace some shingles. It was a total donation from him. Giving back to the community is natural to him. John and his wife Maria are longtime staples of New Dorp Beach as was his father John, owner of John’s Hardware on Winham Avenue. God bless you and your family.

Stewardship Prayer

*My Church is composed of people like me.
I help make it what it is.
It will be friendly, if I am.
Its pews will be filled if I help fill them.
It will do great work, if I work.
It will make generous gifts to many causes,
If I am a generous giver.
It will bring other people into its worship and fellowship, if I invite and bring them.
It will be a church of loyalty and love,
of fearlessness and faith,
and a church with a noble spirit,
if I, who make it what it is,
am filled with these same things.
Therefore, with the help of God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my church to be.*
