OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE
READINGS FOR SUNDAY VOL. 34 NO. 48 NOVEMBER 25, 2018

First Reading: Daniel 7:13-14

Daniel describes the one who will appear on the clouds of heaven and receive glory. People of every language will serve this one, and his leadership and community will be his forever.

Second Reading: Revelation 1:5-8

Jesus is so powerful, he is the ruler of kings. He loved us enough to free us from sin, and so he will be glorified forever. He will appear again and be seen by all the people of the earth. God calls himself the first and last, "the One who is and who was and who is to come," reminding all people that God will remain with us always.

Gospel: John 18:33b-37

Pilate asks Jesus if he is a king. Jesus explains that his kingdom is not of this world. Pilate asks again if Jesus is a king, to which he replies, "I came into the world to testify to the truth. Anyone committed to the truth hears my voice."

WOULD YOU MAKE A SIMPLE PRAYER COMMITMENT FOR A 1st HOLY COMMUNION OR CONFIRMATION CANDIDATE?

St. Patrick's has 113 children who are candidates to receive First Holy Communion or Confirmation in the Spring of 2019. We're asking interested parishioners to take the name of a 1st Holy Communion or Confirmation candidate from the basket in the back of the church and to keep that child and the child's family in your prayers for the next six months. Your prayers can make a difference in the life of this child and their family as they prepare to receive their sacrament. For those willing to make this commitment, your prayers are all that are needed. Thank you!

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

The Giving Tree will be in the rear of the church and school lobby beginning this weekend November 24th & 25th. It will remain up until all of the tags are taken. The Giving Tree will allow three charities on Staten Island to make some of our less fortunate neighbors have a merrier Christmas! Thank you in advance for your generosity!

SAINT OF THE WEEK
St. Andrew (November 30th)

Andrew was St. Peter's brother, and was called with him. "As [Jesus] was walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is now called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, 'Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.' At once they left their nets and followed him" (Matthew 4:18-20).

John the Evangelist presents Andrew as a disciple of John the Baptist. When Jesus walked by one day, John said, "Behold, the Lamb of God." Andrew and another disciple followed Jesus. "Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?' They said to him, 'Rabbi' (which translated means Teacher), 'where are you staying?' He said to them, 'Come, and you will see.' So they went and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day" (John 1:38-39a).

Little else is said about Andrew in the Gospels. Before the multiplication of the loaves, it was Andrew who spoke up about the boy who had the barley loaves and fishes (see John 6:8-9). When the Gentiles went to see Jesus, they came to Philip, but Philip then had recourse to Andrew (see John 12:20-22).

Legend has it that Andrew preached the Good News in what is now modern Greece and Turkey and was crucified at Patras.

Comment: As in the case of all the apostles except Peter and John, the Gospels give us little about the holiness of Andrew. He was an apostle. That is enough. He was called personally by Jesus to proclaim the Good News, to heal with Jesus' power and to share his life and death. Holiness today is no different. It is a gift that includes a call to be concerned about the Kingdom, an outgoing attitude that wants nothing more than to share the riches of Christ with all people.

Quote: "...[T]he Twelve called together the community of the disciples and said, 'It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to serve at table. Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word'" (Acts 6:2-4).
