Second Reading: Philippians 4:4-7

Paul encourages the Philippians to be ready for Christ. He tells them not to worry about their concerns, but to instead ask God's help and allow his peace to fill their hearts and minds.

Gospel: Luke 3:10-18

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Peter Canisius (Dec. 21st)

The energetic life of Peter Canisius should demolish any stereotypes we may have of the life of a saint as dull or routine. Peter lived his 76 years at a pace which must be considered heroic, even in our time of rapid change. A man blessed with many talents, Peter is an excellent example of the scriptural man who develops his talents for the sake of the Lord's work.

He was one of the most important figures in the Catholic Reformation in Germany. His played such a key role that he has often been called the "second apostle of Germany" in that his life parallels the earlier work of Boniface.

Although Peter once accused himself of idleness in his youth, he could not have been idle too long, for at the age of 19 he received a master's degree from the university at Cologne. Soon afterwards he met Peter Faber, the first disciple of Ignatius Loyola, who influenced Peter so much that he joined the recently formed Society of Jesus.

At this early age Peter had already taken up a practice he continued throughout his life—a process of study, reflection, prayer and writing. After his ordination in 1546, he became widely known for his editions of the writings of Saint Cyril of Alexandria and St. Leo the Great. Besides this reflective literary bent, Peter had a zeal for the apostolate. He could often be found visiting the sick or prisoners, even when his assigned duties in other areas were more than enough to keep most people fully occupied.

In 1547 Peter attended several sessions of the Council of Trent, whose decrees he was later assigned to implement. After a brief teaching assignment at the Jesuit college at Messina, Peter was entrusted with the mission to Germany—from that point on his life's work. He taught in several universities and was instrumental in establishing many colleges and seminaries. He wrote a catechism that explained the Catholic faith in a way which common people could understand—a great need of that age.

Renowned as a popular preacher, Peter packed churches with those eager to hear his eloquent proclamation of the gospel. He had great diplomatic ability, often serving as a reconciler between disputing factions. In his letters (filling eight volumes) one finds words of wisdom and counsel to people in all walks of life. At times he wrote unprecedented letters of criticism to leaders of the Church—yet always in the context of a loving, sympathetic concern.

At 70, Peter suffered a paralytic seizure, but he continued to preach and write with the aid of a secretary until his death in his hometown (Nijmegen, Netherlands) on December 21, 1597. Patron Saint of Germany

WELCOMING COMMITTEE

As you may know, over the past few weeks, Msgr. Jeff and Fr. Victor have been requesting volunteers for the new Welcoming Committee. We now have those volunteers in place and look forward to our service to the St. Patrick's Family. The primary task of the Welcoming Committee is to welcome new members to our parish. We do this through a phone call, followed by a meeting, and by providing information, to our new parishioners, on those parish activities and areas of service that they might wish to participate in, such as becoming a choir member; or by joining one of our parish organizations, such as the Hospitality Committee.

Therefore, if you are a new member to St. Patrick's and wish to be contacted, please contact either the parish office. The Welcoming Committee members will then contact you to set up a face-to-face meeting with you at your convenience. Though these meetings are not mandatory for membership in our parish, they are our way of getting to know you and helping you feel at home with your new parish family.

Thank you and let us know if you have any questions, regarding the Committee or the parish. And Welcome to St. Patrick's Church of Staten Island.

Claude & Fran Peterson, Moderators
