

THE CHURCH OF ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST

71 Murray Avenue, Goshen, New York 10924

www.sjegoshen.org ~ (845) 294-5328 ~ office@sjegoshen.org

We offer our prayers and congratulations to the following couples of our parish, whom we honor today at the 12:00pm Mass on the occasion of their marriage jubilees:

55 years

Anthony and Cecilia Palazzola

50 years

Joseph and Barbara Brown
James and Patricia Felczak
Francis and Margaret Shanley

25 years

James and Patricia Biagi
John and Elizabeth Cronin
Thomas and Natalie Maher

No better prayer can we offer than the one included in the newly-revised Order of Celebrating Matrimony:

We praise you, O God,
we bless you, Creator of all things,
who in the beginning made man and woman
that they might form a communion of live and love.
We also give you thanks for graciously blessing the family lives
of your servants,
so that they might present an image of Christ's union with the Church.
Therefore look with kindness upon them today,
and as you have sustained their communion
amid joys and struggles,
renew their Marriage covenant each day,
increase their charity,
and strengthen in them the bond of peace,
so that, together with the circle of their children that surrounds them,
they may for ever enjoy your blessing.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The 27TH ANNUAL NATIONAL NIGHT OF PRAYER FOR LIFE begins in the chapel at 9:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 8th and concludes at 1:00 a.m. on Friday, December 9th. The National Night of Prayer for Life is a prayer service consisting of adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, the holy rosary, Divine Mercy chaplet, litanies, and silent prayer. It was on the feast of the Immaculate Conception (then celebrated on December 9th) that Our Lady of Guadalupe, patroness of the Americas and the unborn, first appeared to St. Juan Diego. The National Night of Prayer for Life bridges these two feasts to honor Our Blessed Mother, and prays through her intercession for the establishment of a culture of life, protection of the Church from persecution, and the revival of our land. All are invited to participate! For more information, please call Dawn at 845-325-4823.

In your prayers please remember, Pamala Boylan, Barbara Jean Brancato, James Bruno, Erica Burns, Abby Furco, JoAnne Gale, Evelyn Glynn, John Kennedy, Agnes Gertrude Keough, Kim Martin, Florence Navarro, Thomasina Nelson, Mary O'Brien, Susan O'Brien, John Patane, Sr., Shawn Peck, Linda Pedersen, Marie Ramirez, Gianna Rose, Lisa Shina, Karen Taphorn, and all those in need, that they may recover through the healing power of Our Lord.

Last weekend, we had the joy of welcoming Deacon Kareem Smith, who will be with us on weekends from now through April 2017. Because he still has a few months of seminary left before ordination to the priesthood, there will be limited times when Kareem will not be here; that includes this weekend and next. However, he will be with us for Christmas and Easter, so everyone will have opportunity to get to know him.

I'm also happy to welcome Fr. James Hess, a Carmelite priest who has recently moved to St. Albert's Priory in Middletown after working in Pittsburgh for several years. Fr. Jim maintains an active ministry preaching retreats, but has very graciously offered to assist us, both on Sundays and weekdays, as his schedule permits.

As you know, the archdiocese is split into "deaneries" (formerly called "vicariates"); it so happens that Orange County is a deanery unto itself. It's a great blessing that the priests and deacons in the county work well together; that includes covering for each other when needed. This week, in fact, several neighboring priests came to assist us with confessions for the students in both the religious education program and the school. It all evens out, as Fr. Jeff and I assist at other parishes with the same needs.

That kind of collaboration is increasingly necessary, because our ranks are thinning faster than many realize. Just recently, two pastors in Orange County have had to spend several weeks "off the job" as they each recuperate from major surgeries. Every time that happens, the archdiocesan priest personnel office has to scramble to find coverage for those parishes; that's especially urgent when the pastor is the only priest assigned to the parish. I'm told that, right now, there are a handful of parishes in need of pastors, for which there just aren't any priests available.

This makes the assistance we receive from Fr. Komonchak and Fr. Jim that much more invaluable. It also points to the absolute necessity for all of us to pray for priestly vocations, and to do everything we can to encourage young men to consider this path.

The celebration of wedding anniversaries is a great joy, but it can be a painful reminder for those who have suffered through a divorce. St. John's hosts a group for the divorced and separated, which had been meeting monthly. If interested in learning more, please contact the coordinator, Helen Piltman, at 845-563-0604.

Catholic Charities Community Services also offers a wonderful service called the Parish Counseling Network (PCN). Here's the description, straight from the website:

Parishioners have access to short term professional counseling at convenient locations throughout the archdiocese through a Parish Counseling Network developed by Catholic Charities. The Network offers more than 125 licensed counseling professionals to help parishioners through issues and crises that can be successfully addressed by brief counseling support such as marital problems, raising children, eldercare, job loss or bereavement. Working from private offices, counselors are experienced with an array of difficulties and diverse clientele. Many of practitioners are bi-lingual in Spanish and English.

I have been sending parishioners to the PCN for nearly nine years. The director, Laura Brovich, has been especially helpful when I've needed to connect someone with a very specific type of counselor. If you or a family member is in need of counseling, make this your first stop; Fr. Jeff and I are able to make referrals, and are happy to do so.

Faithfully your priest,
Fr. George Hafemann

Celebrating Thanksgiving

The seventh grade led the entire school in a Living Rosary prayer service prior to the Thanksgiving Feast. The class took turns reciting the decades of the Rosary and representing each bead of the Rosary.

McCaffrey Hall was set up as a large dining room. Parent volunteers arose early to cook turkeys and prepare food. There were many delicious foods including turkey, mashed potatoes, stuffing and corn. Pie, pudding, and jello were served for dessert.

The Pre-K class came dressed as turkeys. The Kindergarten class enjoyed wearing Native American attire and the First Graders represented the Pilgrims.

In addition to enjoying a Thanksgiving feast together, each class collected items for families in need. Thanksgiving meal baskets were assembled and delivered to House on the Hill.
