

MASS UPDATE

In an effort to better serve his parishioners, beginning Thursday, Thanksgiving Day November 26 and every Sunday, starting November 29, Fr., McGowan will be celebrating a live stream Mass at 10:00 am from his rectory chapel. After each Mass he will offer a drive-through distribution of Holy Communion in the parking lot at 11:00 am.

Here's how it will work:

- Please attend Mass online by streaming our 10 a.m. Mass. www.sanysidroRarish.org click on Face book (you do not need a Facebook account to view).
 - The Communion distribution is a continuation of the Mass you view. Your Communion procession simply begins at home instead of from your pew.
 - Distribution of Communion will begin at 11 :00 a.m., so please time your arrival at church accordingly.
 - Enter by the Corrales Road North entrance turn right to drive past Father McGowan's home to receive communion. San Ysidro ushers will be there to direct traffic.
 - When you approach the Communion station, please put your car in park, roll down your window(s), and extend your hands to receive Holy Communion. The Deacons and Eucharist Ministers will disinfect hands between each car. A donation box will be available.
 - Then, please carefully exit onto Corrales Road using the South exit. Also please note Church and Parish Office will remain closed
- and Mass schedule until further notice. Confessions can still be scheduled.
