Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshiped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! We thank God for your presence at Holy Name of Mary and we pray for you and your families.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we are now offering The Eucharistic Bread and Sacramental Wine memorial for your loved ones. This memorial will be for one week, the donation will be $30.00 and listed here with Mass Intentions.

If Mass is being offered for someone in your family, and you would like to bring the gifts to the altar at the Offertory, please speak to one of the ushers as you arrive.
Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Please allow me to start with thanks to all those who planned and conducted last Sunday’s Martin Luther King Day program. Raising awareness of the issues and challenging ourselves to look at our own perceptions and biases is vital for properly and effectively addressing the matter of equality in all its aspects: racial, societal, economic. While the current cacophony of harsh and ethnically charged words in angry ‘dialogue’ is detestable, it unfortunately serves the purpose of exposing to the light of day the previously hidden ‘real feelings’ which need to be addressed. If this is so, then it shows us just how far we have to go to tear down the walls which still divide us, and to build bridges of understanding between us. We cannot expect that the only way to ‘unity’ is to somehow make us all clones of each other. Respecting the individuality of each person is the way to foster communication and cooperation, seeing how each can complement the other rather than by being judgmental to the other. We need to see beyond the exterior so we can see common ground in the interior which can bind us together. It may mean that each of us has to confront our own personal biases and presumptions and generalizations – and that indeed may be scary. We need to start with ourselves so we can reach out to others.

Tomorrow is another sad anniversary of the Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision legalizing abortion on demand. The issue is often framed as allowing a woman to exercise control over her own body. But somehow the issue of the individual personhood of the child is overlooked. I guess it is something akin to ‘out of sight, out of mind’. The growing baby is not thought of or referred to as such, but rather as a fetus. This reduces the miracle of new life to the status of sterile, clinical vocabulary, enabling the visualization of abortion not as the ending of a human life, which it is, but rather as simply a medical procedure, no different from any other medical procedure. In my almost forty years as a priest, I have interacted with many women who have had abortions earlier in their lives, either willingly or under duress, and almost all have expressed regret and carry great guilt. Not the ‘Catholic guilt’ pro-abortionists accuse us of, but the guilt and regret that comes from a much deeper level - the level of instinctively knowing that only a woman can bring new life into the world, and that the past abortion has interfered with nature itself. Please pray for God’s peace for all mothers and fathers who were robbed of their child(ren) through abortion.

Wow! Sorry if this seems like a ‘downer’ letter. In some ways it is, but it also points to the hope of a better future. How about a little lift with a parting chuckle: An elderly gent was happily driving along when he heard a news bulletin on the radio warning drivers to avoid a car travelling the wrong way on the freeway. “Hmmph” the man snorted, “it looks to me like the freeway’s full of ‘em!”

With love and prayers,

MASS CARDS

Each of us should pray (that is, speak to God and/or to the saints about our hopes, fears, loves, losses, etc.) In prayer we ask for things, give thanks, complain, or simply praise and love God with our minds and hearts.

Prayer often helps people when they are hurting. That is why a Funeral Mass is important for the living as well as for the dead. Every Catholic, even if he or she wasn’t much for going to church, deserves a Funeral Mass. Both the living and the dead benefit from every act of worship.

You see, the Mass renews the sacrifice of Christ on the cross. It gives divine grace to people who participate and to people for whom we intercede. Masses can be requested for the good of others and can also be offered for people who cannot or do not pray for themselves.

That is why having a Mass offered for someone who is sick, for someone’s birthday, anniversary, or as a gift for a friend is a great idea. Mass cards are not just for the dead … they are for the living, too. We can all use the extra grace and blessings.
