Dear Fellow Parishioners,

In today’s Gospel we hear Simon say to Jesus, “Everybody is looking for You.” While he was referring to the town’s people who had witnessed Jesus’ healing actions the day before, and were probably hoping to see him perform further miracles, we can garner a deeper truth in this statement. ‘Everybody is looking for You’ can also indicate our innate longing and searching for a deeper meaning to life than just our everyday existence. There is something in our very being that longs for a connection with the Divine. This shouldn’t surprise us, since we have been made in the image and likeness of God. At our birth we enter into the world as we know it, but there is this special ‘something’ which continually draws us to our Creator. Religion is the organized expression of this longing. Unfortunately, many times the organization of religious expression actually makes the fulfillment of this desire more difficult, since somehow the rules and regulations become more important than the ultimate goal. This has ‘turned off’ many people from organized religion, and has led them to a more generalized ‘spirituality’. Many who now identify themselves as ‘spiritual’ may have been disillusioned by their former denomination, whatever it may have been, but still possess that quest for the Holy. ‘Everybody is indeed looking for You’ Although ultimately each of us needs to make a personal connection with God for the fulfillment of our quest, wandering around ‘untethered’ can lead us far afield from our goal. While we may not appreciate all aspects of our religion, whatever it may be, it enables us to be with others who share a thirst for the same Divine. Perhaps you or someone you know has left the Church and now identifies as ‘spiritual’ instead of Catholic. Wouldn’t it be great if we can unite both as we search? Bringing our ‘spirituality’ to our religion can help restore it to what it was meant to be and ‘enliven’ it so that it become more ‘real’ for us. What could be more spiritual than receiving the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of the One for whom we are searching? Perhaps we can use this upcoming Lent as a time to deepen our individual spirituality as well as to deepen our resolve to practice our Faith more mindfully, being more aware of the many blessings God gives to us through the Catholic Faith.

At the request of several people, I am ‘re-running’ this parting chuckle: Sad news to report: Please join me in remembering a great icon of the entertainment community. The Pillsbury Doughboy died yesterday of a yeast infection and trauma complications from repeated pokes in the belly. He was 71 and rolling in dough. Doughboy was buried in a lightly greased coffin. Dozens of celebrities turned out to pay their respects, including Mrs. Butterworth, Hungry Jack, the California Raisins, Betty Crocker, the Hostess Twinkies, and Captain Crunch. The grave site was piled high with flours. Aunt Jemima delivered the eulogy and lovingly described Doughboy as a man who never knew how much he was kneaded. Born and bread in Minnesota, Doughboy rose quickly in show business, but his later life was filled with turnovers. He was not considered a very smart cookie, wasting much of his dough on half-baked schemes. Despite being a little flaky at times, he still was a crusty old man and was considered a positive roll model for millions. Doughboy is survived by his wife Play Dough, three children: John Dough, Jane Dough and Dosey Dough. He is also survived by his elderly father, Pop Tart. The funeral was held at 3:50 for about 20 minutes.

With love and prayers, Fr. Brian

YEAR END STATEMENTS

Thank you for your patience!

According to WeShare, during December, ParishPay started to email donor year-end statements in a piecemeal fashion. This caused quite a bit of confusion. As an alternative, LPi (WeShare) will be providing comprehensive End-of-Year statement packets sent directly to the church. We will receive two statements per donor. One statement for donations made through ParishPay previous to mid-October. The other statement will cover donations made through WeShare for the balance of the year. WeShare is providing these to HNM to distribute as requested by our parishioners. For future reference, WeShare allows for self-reporting so that next year donors may run reports on their own by using Giving History. HNM has not been given a date as to when the reports will be available.

Renew + Rebuild Statements

Our Renew + Rebuild representative indicates that parishioners should receive their follow up statements according to how they requested to receive them (monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, annually). If you are expecting a statement, and have not received it, please call or contact Cheryl Comitto so our Renew + Rebuild rep can look into it for us.

READINGS FOR THIS WEEK
FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING: JOB 7:1-4, 6-7
SECOND READING: 1 CORINTHIANS 9:16-19, 22-23
GOSPEL: MARK 1:29-39

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46
The Lord tells Moses and Aaron that anyone bearing the sore of leprosy must first be seen by Aaron or one of the other priests, and that as long as the sore is upon him, “He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp.”

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 10:31—11:1
Paul instructs the Corinthians to do everything for the glory of God, to avoid offending others, and to be imitators of Christ.

Gospel: Mark 1:40-45
Jesus takes pity on a leper and cures him of his disease with a warning not to say but to show himself to the priest and make an offering. Instead of remaining silent, the leper greatly publicized the healing, making it impossible for Jesus to enter the town openly.

Are YOU Able to Help?
We currently have one special parishioner who maintains the linens at the Chapel of the Good Shepherd. Sometimes she needs to go out of town or would like a week off, and is asking for a second person to assist. The project requires picking up the used cloths (small size items), laundering them, and returning them to the Chapel. She does it once a week but the schedule is flexible. If you are interested in joining this small team, call Cheryl at the Parish Center 914-271-4797 X30 and she will put you in touch with Rose, to get the specifics.
