Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshiped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! We thank God for your presence at Holy Name of Mary and we pray for you and your families.

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Today is Earth Day 2018. It focuses our attention on the importance of caring for our common home, the earth. It is scary to watch videos of the melting ice caps, growing areas of drought, devastation brought about by an increasing number of unusually powerful storms. These global ecological changes are not just of scientific concern, but of humanitarian and international security concerns as well. Shifting patterns of drought force the migration of huge numbers of people looking for food and water, and they often cross borders of neighboring countries, causing security concerns for them. Violence often breaks out and bloodshed and death result. Although individuals by themselves cannot be the complete answer, the combined actions of many individuals can indeed help to make a crucial difference. Please try to do your part to cut down on waste, whether it be of material goods or something as simple as water. Our Care for Creation Ministry will be outside today after Mass with a petition you might wish to sign. It asks Cardinal Dolan to commit to enabling parishes throughout the Archdiocese to get on-board with ‘green’ initiatives to show that the Catholic Church takes ecological concerns seriously and is working to address these concerns with concrete actions. Each of us can, and must, do our part to keeping the world as healthy as we can, not only for us, but for our children and our children’s children who will be the recipients of what we do, or don’t do, for our planet.

In the words of Dostoevsky, “Beauty will save the world.” Holy Name of Mary is blessed to have a church with such beautiful art and architecture. (It really looks like a church!) It is only fitting that we fill it with consistently beautiful music on a weekly basis. Thanks to a generous donation, professional singers will be part of our most dedicated volunteer choir over the next ten weeks in the celebration of our Sunday 10:45am Liturgy. They have been with us at this Mass since Easter, and many of you have noticed, and expressed appreciation for, the difference a few professionals can make. We hope that this will enhance our weekly worship and encourage all of us attending the Mass to raise up our voices in song and praise. We also hope that it may encourage sustained support of our music ministry --- both financially and through volunteer commitment to, and in, our choir (hint, hint). Additional voices always welcome (hopefully you will be able to carry a note better than I can!). In any case, let us “make a joyful noise unto the Lord.”

A parting chuckle: The pastor came to visit one of his parishioners, a woman in her 90’s and a shut-in. When the pastor inquired about her readiness for eternal life, the woman replied “Yes, I believe I am. I think about it all the time. I decide I want something from the kitchen and by the time I get up from the chair, grab my walker and make my way into the kitchen, I find myself standing there wondering what in the world I’m here after.”

With prayers and love,

Fr. Brian

Midnight Run

Midnight Run provides food and clothing for the homeless in New York City. As per Midnight Run’s philosophy, the goal is to forge a bond between housed and homeless people by establishing a foundation of sharing and caring. Volunteers come to see the homeless as real people. Homeless men and women learn that mainstream adults and teenagers have commitments and concerns that go beyond their own lives and families.

Special thank you to Jeanne Gagnon and the 3 and 4 year old children of HNM Montessori. They made and packed 40 to-go meals that we handed out to the homeless.

Our next run is on May 19th. Please contact us if you would like to help stage a run or go down to NYC to hand out clothing and food.
