Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshiped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! - Short or long-term (12-18 month projects are especially needed)
- Fundraisers are encouraged to be open to the general public
- Fundraisers can be one-time events or recurring (such as 50/50 raffles)
- Fundraising events would be planned and executed by parishioners including members of the Pastoral Council
- Especially welcome are ideas with a social aspect, reflecting the community nature of our parish

We have an email address that you can use to document your idea and send it in.

Fr. Brennan will review the suggested idea and pass on several to the Pastoral Council to work with you on planning, developing and making it happen!

This is an opportunity for all parishioners to help HNM through the immediate financial challenges. Your idea is very well coming from the Holy Spirit and will be just what the Parish needs! So if you have some time and energy to share:

You can now see the new roofing as you pass the rectory on Grand Street. The crew has completed the front of the rectory roof and will be installing gutters next week.

The Church air conditioning system’s second phase is underway! On Monday, Grand Street was very busy with several trucks unloading new units and taking away the old ones. A full crew was on site working on this start-up phase of the install.

Why Be Catholic?

Do we need to be Catholics? Why? Are not all churches the same, do they not all accept Jesus as Lord and Savior?

During the past 500 years the church has been split, broken and splintered.

Today we have 35,000 Christian churches that belong to various denominations, profess various creeds and offer a package deal of what they think is the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The single reason there are so many churches is because they just cannot decide what the Bible teaches. This is because there is no central authority to make a decision.

So let me explain: If you go for any organization or game eg. Football, tennis, basketball etc. in order to have an efficient running of the game we need the authority of a referee whose word is final and respected by all the players.

When Jesus founded the church he knew that this would be needed to make his church credible, efficient and authoritative. So the only way to avoid confusion and misinterpretation was to have an authentic teaching authority.

So Jesus started a church to be governed with authentic authority chosen by Him and he chose Peter and his successors to be the shepherds of his Church until the end of time and that is why the Catholic Church is One, Holy and Apostolic.

He intended his followers to be unified (Jn. 17:21. My prayer, Father, is for all of them, that they be one, just as you and I are one, Father—so that just as you are in me and I in you, that they will be in us and that the world may believe you sent me). Sent his Holy Spirit to guide them (JN, 14:26 The Father will send His Counsellor, the Holy Spirit—he will teach you everything and will remind you of everything I have told you.)

So Jesus commissioned Peter as head of His Church. (You are Peter and upon this Rock I will build my Church, the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it, whose sins you forgive. They will be forgiven and whose sins you retain, they will be retained I will give you the keys of heaven MT, 16: 17-19) this is yet carried on by apostolic succession by the Popes throughout the past centuries.

After the resurrection of Jesus, all the apostles and followers accepted the authority of Peter. It was Peter who made all the decisions when the church was in it infancy. He proposed the successor to the apostle Judas, He went out and began to preach to both Jews and to the gentiles, after Pentecost he bravely spoke to the people.

At the first council of the Church when Peter made known his decisions the Acts mention that “the whole assembly fell silent”, this shows that the authority of Peter was accepted by the early church.

The Catholic church has through the centuries accepted the authority of Peter and his successors. This brings about stability and a sense still being in touch with Jesus.
