Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshiped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! We thank God for your presence at Holy Name of Mary and we pray for you and your families.

Midnight Runs

At Holy Name of Mary, we participated in our first "run" in 2008. We bring box lunches, hot coffee, soup and clothing to the homeless on the streets of NYC about eight times per year. We spend time with the people and talk to them. They, in turn, share their stories with us. We have monthly runs scheduled. To do this, we need volunteers. Teenagers are welcome. A typical run needs three or four vans/SUV's, 5-6 adults, 8-10 teenagers. The teenagers who attend are very moved by their experiences.

How you can help

Donations are always needed. Please donate new socks, underwear, backpacks, t-shirts (medium and large sizes), pants, sweatshirts and individual toiletries; including toothbrushes and toothpastes, deodorants, disposable razors. Donations can be left in the Parish Center and labeled for Midnight Run.

We are also looking for volunteers to make sandwiches and bake desserts. We make 80 brown bag sandwiches, soup, coffee, fruit and fresh baked dessert.

We are always in need for more volunteers with SUVs to drive down to the city with us.

Our next run is on September 29th. Please contact us if you would like to help stage a run or go down to NYC to hand out clothing and food. Davidadler@optonline.net or 914-806-7419. We have additional runs on November 3rd and December 15th. Midnightrun.org is a non-profit based in Dobbs Ferry and started in 1984 to help the less fortunate in NYC. They organize visits to NYC on Friday and Saturday nights by charity groups throughout the greater NYC area.

Fr. Ron Book Signing
Imagine a parish where the entire congregation consists of murderers, thieves, rapists, child molesters and drug dealers. That was my congregation at Sing Sing Prison. It was quite a challenge helping them to discover that God could still love them in spite of all that they had done and that God was eager to help them rebuild their broken lives. The challenge was even greater within a very dysfunctional and corrupt prison system.

I wrote a book about this, REFUGE IN HELL: Finding God in Sing Sing, which was just published by Orbis Press at Maryknoll. I will be speaking about the book at a book signing in the 3rd Floor meeting room of the school on Sunday, September 30 at 7 PM. Copies of the book will be available for purchase for $22. Or you can order them sooner from Orbis Press or Amazon. All are welcome.

Expectant Mother Care’s Baby Bottle Drive
Thank you for your generosity! To all who participated in the Baby Bottle Drive this spring: the amount collected to date is $3,228 and we'll report the final figure when everything is totaled.

In NYC there are works of mercy that happen every day for mothers and their children thanks to Expectant Mother Care. By the grace of God, EMC has saved 43,000 babies over the last 33 years. Expectant Mother Care offers pregnancy testing, sonograms, counseling, and provides help with adoption if needed. Expectant Mother Care empowers mothers to make the courageous choice to bring their child into the world. What a wonderful mercy!
Lost Faith…Lapsed Catholic? 8

People come to me often and I hear them say, “I have lost my faith. I no longer believe, I am a lapsed catholic.” Or maybe they say, “My kids have no faith, my siblings no longer go to church, some friends of mine have left the church.” Is it possible for us to lose our faith?

It is possible for us to lose our salvation if we so choose, it is possible for us at one point to say “yes” to God and later on to say a “no”. The second thing for us to know about faith is for us to understand that faith is both a gift and a virtue. By this I mean that no one can give oneself a gift of faith, it is always given. It is a gift given to those who believe in God Himself. Now god desires that all people come to knowledge of Him and attain salvation. But since it is also a virtue it has to be maintained, cultivated and nurtured. It has to be used, and exercised. So we cannot lose faith but we can choose to give it away or choose not to use it.

The choice to give it away does not happen in a moment or suddenly, it is not that one day you decide to say a “no, I will not serve the Lord, I will now serve something or somebody else.” Usually though we take back our hearts from God a little bit at a time, a tiny bit at a time, and give those pieces to something or somebody else and that is how we create an idol. Making an idol is done by taking a good thing and then making it the ultimate thing in your life. Taking a relationship, a gift, a talent, a career, a job and placing it at the center of your life, a place that was once given only to God. Like many marriages that end up as shipwrecks, they did not happen in one major event but over time bit by bit, piece by piece. Pieces of the marriage were taken away from and handed over slowly to another. The same is with our relationship with God. What happens is that something else becomes a chief rival to God for a place in your life, your heart, your time and your mind. This is because as humans we always need an idol, somebody once said that the heart is an idol making machine. We can make an idol from almost anything.

Does God have a chief rival in your heart? Chances are there may be at least one if not two or more. How do you find that out? We owe God our worship at least once a week, on Sundays! OK so the question is when it comes to your weekend, your Sunday, is there anything that you would skip Sunday Mass for in order to go to this other thing? When I talk to parents, they’ll say things like, “we have soccer, or Hockey or whatever other thing, oh yes! There is this tournament coming up and we just can’t make it for Mass.” I am sometimes tempted to ask the parents whether they expect their kid to be in the NFL or in the National Hockey League—are they going pro? Are they even in the starting line-up? So if your kid isn’t even in the starting line-up are you willing to take them away from God. Then there are other idols. “Oh! We are going shopping, there is a sale, we are visiting grandma today, my child had a sleep-over last night…” so many rivals and idol replacements for God.

Yet I have met very many who are an inspiration to me, says one, “I love to receive Holy Eucharist every Sunday and I feel good for the week, I love to be at Mass and listen to God’s word and be with fellow believers.” A young man told me, “My highest priority is the Eucharist, my next priority is my wife and my third priority are my kids. God doesn’t need to have a rival in our lives and that’s one way to lose faith. The other way is to just not use our faith, which means to give in to indifference, we do not care one way or the other and so we don’t act our faith and don’t exercise and so by being unused our faith dies, it shrivels up, it dries out, it atrophies and dies. Like any other part of our body dies when not used or exercised.

I love you readers and invite you all back into the faith: Remember that if you are reading this, it is God’s way to call you back. If you are restless and feeling your heart needs a safe place, God is calling you back. Lean into this relationship with Jesus and identify the rivals and idols you have made in your heart. Eliminate the rivals, decrease their hold on you by returning to God, Give your soul and body back to God, you are His Temple. Pray alone and with others, ask for advice and be aware of all that is happening in your life right now, maybe they are messages coming from God for your return. Walk by faith and may the Joy and Peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be always with you.

Only Love Matters
Fr. Nelson Couto
