Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshiped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! We thank God for your presence at Holy Name of Mary and we pray for you and your families.

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Please allow me to start by thanking the Cub Scouts for providing such a delicious pancake and sausage breakfast this morning. It is a real family affair and allows us as a parish to come together and grow as the family of Faith that we are. A special thanks to all of the parents in the kitchen who did the actual cooking; the appreciation of your hard work was evidenced by the licked-clean plates at the end of the meal! Y u m m m!

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday, the beginning of the holiest week of the church year. We are expecting large numbers of people at the Masses. Be nice. Someone may be sitting in your usual spot. Be nice. Unfortunately, we have become unaccustomed to full Masses, so parking may be more difficult than usual. Be nice. We are looking to be a welcoming faith community, inviting back those who perhaps have drifted away for various reasons over the years. Be nice. There will be a long Gospel, known as the reading of the Passion. Be patient. Being nice is so much better than being annoyed, ungracious, antagonistic, or even combative. So let’s just be nice!!!!

Although here at Holy Name of Mary we celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation in the Fall of the year (when it’s easier to get a bishop), many parishes still do so in the spring. Each candidate for Confirmation is in need of a sponsor, whose primary function is to help the person to be confirmed to faithfully fulfill the obligations connected with this Sacrament. Consequently, there can be a mad rush for sponsors to get sponsor certificates. Ideally, the sponsor for Confirmation should be the same sponsor at Baptism in order to highlight the connection between these two Sacraments.

Canon 874 of the Code of Canon Law is very specific about who can be a sponsor. As a minimum, the person to be a sponsor must: + be a Catholic who has been confirmed and who has already received the Sacrament of the Most Holy Eucharist; + have completed his/her sixteenth year; + be leading a life in harmony with the Faith and the role to be undertaken; + not be bound by any canonical penalty; + not be the father or the mother of the candidate. The Church views the sponsor as an integral part of the ‘support system’ meant to assist a Catholic in the growth of his/her Faith. By living out the Catholic Faith in his/her daily life, the sponsor is intended to be another readily identifiable role model for a Catholic to follow. It is impossible for a person not in full communion with the Catholic Church to role-model for someone else what it means to be a Catholic. Therefore, a non-Catholic cannot be a sponsor, either for Baptism or for Confirmation. Such a person may however (if they are a baptized and practicing member of another Christian denomination) participate in the ceremony as a Christian Witness.

A parting chuckle: Being diagnosed with memory loss isn’t the worst thing that can happen to you because in fifteen minutes, you’ll have forgotten about it.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Brian

TENEBRAE EXPLAINED

Most Religious, and many members of the laity, recite what is known as the Divine Office daily as a means of sanctifying the hours of the day and offering continuing praise and worship to God. Portions of the Divine Office from Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday are what is known as a Tenebrae Service which is celebrated in a communal setting.

Tenebrae is Latin for darkness/shadows and the service is so-named since it originally took place in late evening hours. It is in many ways a funeral-like service for Jesus, reflecting the mournful atmosphere of Holy Week and the desolation felt by the Church.

On each of the three days, seven lit candles stand on the altar when Tenebrae begins. The seven candles represent the seven last words of Christ. The service follows with readings, responses, psalms chanted in English with a simple Gregorian melody, verses (short sentences from the presider with responses from the congregation) and sung lamentations. At seven designated points a candle is extinguished, so the church moves into increasing gloom and darkness --- much as Jesus suffered increasing sorrow over these three days, culminating in the darkness of the tomb.

The Tenebrae service is a powerful and emotional aspect of Holy Week and the Triduum as the Church marks its most-important week in the liturgical year and the major events of salvation history. We encourage parishioners to join our parish Tenebrae Services on April 18, 19 and 20 at 9 AM.

Fair Trade Coffee and other Equal Exchange
Organic and sustainable products will be sold after Masses on April 6 and 7.
Please support this ministry which supports 3rd world farmers.
The Easter Bunny shops with us! “The chocolate is amazing”, EB says!
Equal Exchange is a Fair Trade organization that buys directly from small-scale farmer cooperatives, owned and run by the farmers themselves. Because their farmer partners are paid above market prices for their crops, they are able to make investments in community projects, educational programs, and technical training. These cooperative organizations help keep rural communities healthy and strong; they keep local cultures vibrant.
Equal Exchange is also committed to supporting sustainable farming methods that help green the earth through reforestation, natural resource conservation and organic practices.
By buying and using so much delicious Equal Exchange coffee, tea, hot cocoa, chocolate bars, nuts and snacks, we of Holy Name of Mary have been making a difference! In solidarity with our global neighbors, we help these small farmers to help themselves, their families, and their communities, as well as the environment.

Contact Bernie at byozwiak@optonline.net or John at jjllc@verizon.net if you’d like to assist with this ministry! YOU make a difference! We sell once a month after Masses AT COST.
