Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshiped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! We thank God for your presence at Holy Name of Mary and we pray for you and your families.

Children’s Faith Formation
Religious Education is accepting registration for the 2019/2020 school year. Materials were mailed to our families who are currently in attendance. If you are new to the Parish and have a child to enroll, please call the office at 271-4254 or email hnmreleduc@aol.com

We ask you to support our scholarship fund which benefits our families experiencing financial difficulties. Through your generosity, we are able to give partial scholarship to some needy families. If anyone would like to contribute, please make checks payable to Holy Name of Mary, indicate “scholarship” in the memo section and mail it to:
114 Grand Street to the attention of Religious Education. Thank you!

CONGRATULATIONS!
Efrin Colon is the winner of the 300 Club drawing for week 7.
We are beginning our Baby Bottle Drive – identical to last year’s - that raised over $4,000 in support of Expectant Mother Care of NY. This is a group with numerous locations in the NY area, which in the last 34 years has aided almost 150,000 women, pregnant women and children.

We offer you the opportunity to take home an empty Baby Bottle and between now and the weekend after Father’s Day put in cash, change or checks payable to Expectant Mother Care to help support their vital work.

This is an easy opportunity for you to provide some financial aid to an organization which has helped thousands of frequently desperate women and children in past years and continues to provide life affirming aid.

Holy Name of Mary’s Playgroup is looking for help for next school year!

We are looking for any adults willing to help run Playgroup next year for the Friday mornings. It’s a great way for your little one to play and make friends for years to come, while the adults get to make friends too! You enjoy a huge gym space with a range of toys including fun ride-on outdoor big-wheels, and big-cars. It’s super easy to do as well. If you’re interested please speak to Jessica Dieckman after mass or Debra Rago at the Parish Office (914) 271-4797 x30. I have been involved with Playgroup now for nine years and have run Playgroup now for two years and have really enjoyed it. We will definitely need some new help next year so please keep it in mind. Also, if anyone has some big-cars or big-wheels to ride on and would like to donate them to Playgroup, please contact us.

Sunday Notes: 2

In Search for a Meaning

The days of my life just went by, I was doing a lot of “work” accomplishing many things and there was no joy in all that I did. Something was missing and I became a phony, I was someone who pretended to be happy, after all I told myself that I had no earthly reason to be joyless. I was doing all the right things, moving in the right circles, I was respected and admired for the multifaceted being that I was. I was told early in my life that being a morally righteous person was the right thing to do and so I was a great Pharisee. I never did anything wrong and always found myself doing that which was right but maybe not that which gave me joy. Most of the time I was in the right, but can you imagine a life with no fun at all. Hard work and poverty was the daily bread of our lives. This was very true of my parents too, they were people who prayed--they loved each other and worked very hard to give us the bare necessities of life. They seemed very content with their lives and with the way they formed our characters. Both my parents felt God was ever present in their lives.

I was fully immersed in the world of religion, faith and preaching, I gave to others what I did not have myself. During this period I was blessed to have two encounters with the greatest and holiest persons in the world, the first was Pope John Paul II. I met him at the Vatican, concelebrated the Eucharist with him and later on was invited to a meeting with him. This for me was very profound and left a lasting impression on my soul. He was later canonized; I was in the presence of a saint! I felt joy, I knew it was joy and I remained in that joy for quite some time. Even after over twenty years I still carry a photograph of our meeting in my wallet. The Sisters of Mother Teresa frequently asked me to give talks and also administer the sacraments to them and their residents. It was here that I met the second holy person: Mother Teresa of Kolkata. I met her on three occasions and once was privileged to give her a ride to where she was going. We didn’t speak much but I felt a certain awe and an enrichment of my being as we silently allowed the flow of our energies to intermingle and influence my future. This was my introduction into the world of saints. Though at the moment there was no perceptible change in me. I knew that I was forever blessed and joy was just around the corner. In fact when she died I felt her loss deeply. Shortly after her death she was canonized. This was something uncanny; imagine me meeting with two canonized saints in one lifetime. I was privileged.

While on the one hand I did have a theoretical knowledge of religion and the spiritual life, now I was brought before the greatest figures of our times so that I could see for myself that there was a spirituality I could live by and find my life’s fulfillment and joy in it.

Summerfest 2019

Despite dire predictions of thunderstorms, heavy rain and wind.....Summerfest last Sunday turned out to be a picture perfect day for parades, music, food and fun. The annual village street fair is one of Holy Name’s largest fundraisers, from sales of 50/50 raffle tickets to baked goods, hot dogs and hamburgers, grilled chicken, sausage & peppers, beer and the Spanish Ministry’s special recipe sangria. Parishioners pitch in to contribute baked goods and beer and sign up for shifts selling lemonade and food. Knights of Columbus manpower pitches tents, sets up tables and chairs, flips burgers and makes sure the food is hot and delicious. Montessori school parents run a kids fun tent and members of the Holy Name Respect Life ministry hand out information about Birthright and for the first time this year invited people inside the church to say a decade of the rosary every hour during Summerfest. The day is a chance for parishioners to work alongside each other serving the public and building camaraderie. Pictures from Summerfest show the spirit of the day: selling, conversing and hard work. Parishioner Karen Columbo was the winner of the $1200 prize from the 50/50 Raffle.
