Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshiped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! We thank God for your presence at Holy Name of Mary and we pray for you and your families.

Religious Education is accepting registration for the 2019/2020 school year. Materials were mailed to our families who are currently in attendance. If you are new to the Parish and have a child to enroll, please call the office at 271-4254 or email hnmreleduc@aol.com. We ask you to support our scholarship fund which benefits our families experiencing financial difficulties. Through your generosity, we are able to give partial scholarship to some needy families.

If anyone would like to contribute, please make checks payable to Holy Name of Mary, indicate “scholarship” in the memo section and mail it to:

114 Grand Street to the attention of Religious Education. Thank you!
A letter to People of Faith

This is a time for us to sit back relax and think about where the Holy Spirit is leading you when the new school year begins. Here at Holy Name of Mary, we will once again start planning for the catechesis of our children and work on ways and means we need to hand on our faith to the children, teens and adults. For those of you who will be invited to be catechists and those who may be considering offering themselves for this mission I have ten reasons you could consider for being a catechist.

1. It is the right thing to do. Jesus told us to go forth and preach his word to all the nations. He will stand by you. The Holy Spirit will guide you and the Father will abide in you.

- Fr. Nelson

Sunday Notes: 3

As far as social life and friendships were concerned. I found myself admired by many but left out of any chummy gatherings. Most of the time I was left alone and had to fend for myself and this was what found me the best companions that reached out to me and helped me cross the bridge of loneliness and enter into the realm of solitude. Books were my addiction and always welcomed me with open arms for hours and days on end. The boys of my age did not waste time in reading. Whenever I entered into groups and found myself with others, sometimes to find out what they conversed about and what was it that was of interest to them, I found it very boring and just an idle waste of time. Books were great and friendly and did not object if I did not treat them well by not reading them from cover to cover.

While I was in the seminary studying for the priesthood I read many more books than were prescribed by the professors. That was one more avenue that led me to deeper readings into spirituality, the lives of saints and religious founders and understanding deeply the words of Jesus Christ.

During one of my bouts of depression I took refuge in a chapel and spent hours there in silence as my mind whirled in and out of the chaos of helplessness. I remember that I fell asleep and I had the first of my two lucid dreams. I can remember them as if I had them yesterday. So here I was gazing out into emptiness and a tea cup of exquisite beauty, very fragile and I had never seen such beauty before. As I watched it with wonder it was held by a hand that turned it around slowly and as I gazed at it with admiration it suddenly jumped out of the hand and fell to the hard floor shattered into a thousand pieces. I was heart-broken on witnessing this irreparable damage and wondered what was it that had caused the cup to jump out of the caring hand. It was a huge loss to the world.

And yet as I watched and mourned the loss of the cup I saw the hand gently get to the floor and gather the shattered remains of the cup and then I watched the miracle of the hand gently placing all the pieces in their proper formation and shaping the cup like a master solving a jigsaw puzzle. The cup was whole, complete and beautiful again. A work of art put together by infinite patience and an unbounded love of beauty. As the dream whirled in and out of the chaos of helplessness. I entered into groups and found myself with others, sometimes to find out what they conversed about and what was it that was of interest to them, I found it very boring and just an idle waste of time. The Health, Safety and Security Committee of the HNM Pastoral Council…

… is updating policies and procedures for emergencies in the church, gymnasium, chapel, parish center building and parish house (rectory). If you have special skills, training and experience in coping with medical emergencies (doctors, nurses, medical technicians), fire emergencies (firemen and women), or security breaches (police officers, military personnel), we invite you to join the HNM Immediate Responders.

If you are willing to use your skills during emergencies at HNM, and could attend occasional training or refresher sessions, please call or text Tom Faranda (914) 924-2061, or email Maureen Poh Fitzpatrick (mbp9@columbia.edu), and tell us that you would step up and serve the HNM community in those potentially life-saving minutes before Croton Police, Fire or Emergency Medical Services can arrive and take over. Training sessions are anticipated later this year.

Midnightrun.org is a non-profit based in Dobbs Ferry and started in 1984 to help the less fortunate in NYC. They organize visits to NYC on Friday and Saturday nights by charity groups throughout the greater NYC area.

At Holy Name of Mary, we participated in our first "run" in 2008. We bring bag lunches, hot coffee, soup and clothing to the homeless on the streets of NYC about eight times per year. We spend time with the people and talk with them. They, in turn, share their stories with us. We have monthly runs scheduled. To do this, we need volunteers.

Teenagers are welcome. A typical run needs three or four vans/SUV's, 5-6 adults, 8-10 teenagers. The teenagers who attend are very moved by their experiences.

How you can help

Donations are always needed. Please donate new socks, underwear, backpacks, t-shirts (medium and large sizes). We are also looking for lightly used blue jeans, sweatshirts and hoodies, individual toiletries; including toothbrushes and toothpastes, deodorants, and disposable razors. Donations can be left in the Parish Center and labeled for Midnight Run.

We are also looking for volunteers to make sandwiches and bake desserts. We make 80 to go meals, soup, coffee, fruit and fresh baked dessert. We’re always in need for more volunteers with SUVs to drive down to the city with us.

Our next run is on July 13th and August 24th. Please contact us if you would like to help stage a run or go down to NYC to hand out clothing and food.

Holy Name of Mary's Playgroup is looking for help for next school year!

We are looking for any adults willing to help run Playgroup next year for the Friday mornings. It's a great way for your little one to play and make friends for years to come, while the adults get to make friends too! You enjoy a huge gym space with a range of toys including fun ride-on outdoor big-wheels, and big-cars. It's super easy to do as well. If you're interested please speak to Jessica Dieckman after mass or Debra Rago at the Parish Office (914) 271-4797 x30. I have been involved with Playgroup now for nine years and have run Playgroup now for two years and have really enjoyed it. We will definitely need some new help next year so please keep it in mind. Also, if anyone has some big-cars or big-wheels to ride on and would like to donate them to Playgroup, please contact us.

In addition to Mass Intentions you can also dedicate the Eucharistic Bread and Sacramental Wine to your loved ones. This memorial is for the whole week. The donation is $30 and listed with the Mass Intentions.

A showing of the film

Paris to Pittsburgh

The film brings to life the impassioned efforts of individuals who are battling the most severe threats of climate change in their own backyards. Set against the national debate over the United States' energy future - and the current Administration's explosive decision to exit the Paris Climate Agreement - the film captures what's at stake for communities around the country and the inspiring ways Americans are responding.

Bring a friend! All are welcome!
