Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshiped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! We thank God for your presence at Holy Name of Mary and we pray for you and your families.

... is updating policies and procedures for emergencies in the church, gymnasium, chapel, parish center building and parish house (rectory). If you have special skills, training and experience in coping with medical emergencies (doctors, nurses, medical technicians), fire emergencies (firemen and women), or security breaches (police officers, military personnel), we invite you to join the HNM Immediate Responders.

If you are willing to use your skills during emergencies at HNM, and could attend occasional training or refresher sessions, please call or text Tom Faranda (914) 924-2061, or email Maureen Poh Fitzpatrick (mbp9@columbia.edu), and tell us that you would step up and serve the HNM community in those potentially life-saving minutes before Croton Police, Fire or Emergency Medical Services can arrive and take over. Training sessions are anticipated later this year.
10 Reasons We Are Catholics.

10. The Catholic Church is the Church that Jesus Christ founded and sent the Holy Spirit to guide. It’s Unique. It’s the original, founded by the Son of God, the beginnings, of which go back to the times of Abraham thousands of years before the Birth of Christ.

9. The Catholic Church has relieved more suffering than any other group in the history of the world. We care for the sick, the hungry, the lonely, the homeless, the uneducated, the abandoned, the imprisoned, the marginalized and the downtrodden.

8. The Catholic Church has history and mystery. The history of Christianity is Catholic, for more than 1500 years there were no Baptists, Methodists, Lutherans, Pentecostals, Presbyterians, Mormons, evangelical Christians, and Non-denominational Christians. Today there are more than 40,000 different Christian denominations, but they all lack the rich and beautiful history that we have as Catholics. We have history and we have mystery. We know that it’s all right not to have the answer to everything. Some things are a mystery and that’s OK

7. The Catholic Church has the saints. These are the heroes and heroines of Christianity. They are the most diverse group of people in history. Some were rich, some were poor, some were educated, some were uneducated some were young and some were old. They have lived in every century, on every continent and in every country and they all tried to be the best version of themselves. Now they’re in heaven cheering you on.

6. The Catholic Church believes in the power of prayer at every moment of everyday. Mass is being celebrated in thousands of places around the world. That’s our family, the Catholic Church, praying for the whole world. We don’t just pray for Catholics. We pray for everyone. Imagine how different the history of the world would have been if the Catholics had never offered a single prayer.

5. The Catholic Church is One, Holy and Universal. It’s the same Church all over the world. You could go touring the planet and you will find the same Mass being celebrated. Though the languages may differ, everybody knows what is going on. Catholicism is the same everywhere and that’s a beautiful thing.

4. The Catholic Church is the premier defender of human rights. For 2000 years we’ve been defending the rights of people whether they’re Catholic or not. It shows that Catholicism is not just self-interest and that’s a beautiful thing too.

3. The Catholic Church teaches that you need to be a part of something bigger than yourself. Life’s not about you. It’s about loving God by laying down your life in the service of other people. You could lay down your life for money, you could lay down your life for a sport or for a career or for stuff people do. What a waste! The Catholic Church has a most important mission in the world and you’re invited to get involved and be a part of that great mission.

2. The Catholic Church has the food needed for both Body and Soul: The Eucharist. Jesus Christ is truly present in the Eucharist, it’s the ultimate spiritual food. Every Mass is a celebration where the bread of Life is offered to the Catholics.

1. The Catholic Church invites you: You don’t say “no” to God when he invites you. There are some invitations we don’t turn down. You need to come up with some of your own reasons for being Catholic. You have to make your policies and decisions on your own.

Sunday Notes: 4

The lucid dream of the cup that I was gifted with did not change the outer situations and events of my life but it helped to gradually gain a confidence though imperceptible, I realized dimly that I was morphing out of a caterpillar state of existence, into a butterfly that I always was. I knew that I was heading somewhere but I didn’t know where. The battles of life continued, confusion and chaos still ruled my life but the pain was losing its sting and the numbness was wearing away. I was learning to lose the feeling of being abandoned and was forgiving to those who caused it, by an understanding within myself, acknowledging that everyone was doing what they thought was the right and good thing to do. They carried on doing their best but it was causing a lot of hurt and trauma. I stopped blaming others and accepted the life that was being dealt for me.

Among the many healings that came to me on account of this dream was that, you remain priceless in the sight of God. He restores his priceless creation over and over again and in fact every time the priceless creation is destroyed, God finds ways and means to make it even more priceless and more beautiful than it was before. It seems like we are constantly challenging God to recreate us over and over again. Every time we are broken, with great humility He bends down picks up the pieces and puts us back together. In the process of being touched by infinite and unconditional love we stop from further damaging ourselves and also protect ourselves from being broken and shattered by others.

The light of God’s love penetrates the darkness of our unforgiving selves so much so that we begin to take pride in who we are, and the healing process begins when we finally begin to love ourselves as we have never done before. If God can find me beautiful and lovable why should not I do the same? Since he loves all humans equally why should I not do the same to others? I began in a small way to love my neighbor as myself.

This was then brought to a greater light to me when I was meditating on the Death of Jesus on the cross. Here he lay a total wreck, no longer human but just flesh clinging to the wooden cross, this was a priceless treasure that was no more priceless but utterly worthless, unrecognizable and yet the loving hands of the Father put the cup together again in a fabulous and awe-inspiring manner. That is the Resurrection! We humans are gifted by the resurrection not once but many times as we experience the numerous resurrections that take place within the scope and time of our bodily lives. The event of the cross is the story of many a human life. We cannot help but see the drama being repeated both in our own lives and in the lives of all people around the world. In love we share our experiences and recount the healing touch we have received and thus ease the pain in the world. The healed and those undergoing healing then minister to those who still do not know of the Infinite and unconditional Love of our Father.

Hello Parishioners of Holy Name of Mary,

On the weekend of May 18th I spoke at all of the masses for my Eagle Project at the Veterans Hospital in Montrose. I’d like to thank everyone for their generous contribution. That weekend alone I raised over $1,800 with more being given to the Parish office throughout the week. Again I’d like to express my gratitude for everyone’s donations.

Sincerely,
Ryan DeLasho

Come join us saving lives!
Birthright will be having a training for new volunteers:

Midnight Run

Midnightrun.org is a non-profit based in Dobbs Ferry and started in 1984 to help the less fortunate in NYC. They organize visits to NYC on Friday and Saturday nights by charity groups throughout the greater NYC area.

At Holy Name of Mary, we participated in our first "run" in 2008. We bring bag lunches, hot coffee, soup and clothing to the homeless on the streets of NYC about eight times per year. We spend time with the people and talk with them. They, in turn, share their stories with us. We have monthly runs scheduled. To do this, we need volunteers.

Teenagers are welcome. A typical run needs three or four vans/SUV’s, 5-6 adults, 8-10 teenagers. The teenagers who attend are very moved by their experiences.

How you can help
Donations are always needed. Please donate new socks, underwear, backpacks, t-shirts (medium and large sizes). We are also looking for lightly used blue jeans, sweatshirts and hoodies, individual toiletries; including toothbrushes and toothpastes, deodorants, and disposable razors. Donations can be left in the Parish Center and labeled for Midnight Run.

We are also looking for volunteers to make sandwiches and bake desserts. We make 80 to go meals, soup, coffee, fruit and fresh baked dessert. We’re always in need for more volunteers with SUVs to drive down to the city with us.

Our next run is on July 13th and August 24th. Please contact us if you would like to help stage a run or go down to NYC to hand out clothing and food.

Program at Temple Israel Next Sunday Speaks of Peace

Spend a Sunday afternoon listening to a Jewish settler and a Palestinian man tell their personal stories about efforts to build a better future for their people. In this ground-breaking program, they come with no ready peace plans in hand, but only the conviction that human understanding and trust will be the prerequisites for lasting justice, freedom and peace on the tiny sliver of land they both call home.

After a light lunch, compliments of TINW Donor Funds, the program will begin at 1:00. Sunday, June 30, 2019
Lunch begins at 12:15 at Temple Israel of Northern Westchester 31 Glengary Lane, Croton. Program is from 1 to 3 p.m. Please RSVP at 271.4705 x121 or https://tinyurl.com/TINW-Roots-Program
