Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshiped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! We thank God for your presence at Holy Name of Mary and we pray for you and your families.

This Week’s Readings

First Reading

Genesis 18:1-10a

Abraham entertains three strangers and is promised a son.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 15:2-5

Those who do justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

Second Reading

Colossians 1:24-28

The mystery hidden from ages past has now been revealed in Christ.

Gospel Reading

Luke 10:38-42

Jesus visits the house of Martha and Mary.

Background on the Gospel Reading

The story of Jesus in the home of Martha and Mary complements the story of the Good Samaritan, which immediately precedes it in Luke's Gospel. Both stories are unique to Luke. The story of the Samaritan opens with the words “a certain man.” Today's reading opens with the words “a certain woman.” The story of the Samaritan is an example of how a disciple should see and act. Mary is an example of how a disciple should listen. Mary, a woman, is a marginalized person in society, like the Samaritan. Both do what is not expected of them. As a woman, Mary would be expected, like Martha, to prepare hospitality for a guest. Here again Jesus breaks with the social conventions of his time. Just as a Samaritan would not be a model for neighborliness, so a woman would not sit with the men around the feet of a teacher.

Both stories exemplify how a disciple is to fulfill the dual command which begins chapter 10—love of God (Mary) and love of neighbor (the Samaritan). These are the two essentials of life in the kingdom. By using the examples of a Samaritan and a woman, however, Jesus is saying something more. Social codes and boundaries were strict in Jesus’ time. Yet to love God with all one’s heart and one’s neighbor requires breaking those rules. The Kingdom of God is a society without distinctions and boundaries between its members. It is a society that requires times for seeing and doing and also times for listening and learning at the feet of a teacher.
Sunday Notes  8
My sensitiveness to the quiet voice of the universe and the happiness I felt with that, taught and encouraged me to still the noises that I had within myself. And so if you would like to try and have a look into your life maybe you will find things and treasures that will help you to live and grow with solitude.
In the world that we live in today, we are constantly bothered about the text messages and e-mails we get and send to others, we are worried about our future both remote and proximate, the next paycheck, the relationships that are falling apart, the goals we are reaching for and those we have lost, we can’t forget and forgive the past, and much more, these are the noises we have as a constant background in our lives. For a large part of our days we operate on this very noisy level—we are worried about the future and we can’t forget the past, we think about our work, our family, our friends, our hang-ups, we love some people and think about them and we don’t love others and can’t stop thinking about them. Besides that we are inundated with news from the media, this feeds into the level of noises that we live with, in quiet unacknowledged desperation. The good news that we search for seems to be a momentary flash, fast and far between, an email or message or a phone call can change the way we feel about for a few hours and maybe even days. Somebody or something is constantly plugged into our lives and we never ever get a chance to unplug them from our lives. Is there a possibility to free ourselves from these shackles? In my case there was an escape route: Meditation! So, here it is: Let me help you meditate.
In meditation there is the element of turning off the world around you, you switch off all exterior noises, turn off your TV, find a quiet space and place the phone off the hook, place a “Do not disturb” sign outside your door, you might even darken your room a bit. The next step is, you take time to plug into yourself, this you do by telling yourself—“Let’s see what’s going on inside?” just close your eyes and feel what is going on inside, get in touch with all the noises inside you and thus you begin your relationship with solitude.
As you begin to connect yourself with the condition (noises) you are in, you also get connected with the rest of humanity. This is because now you are unplugging yourself from the outside noise and getting familiar with your inside noise. As you just pay attention to the noise that comes to you from your thoughts and your emotions and everything else, your life begins to grow deeper and it begins to take on a structure of its own. In the past there may have been a period in your life when you did not know what to do with your spare moments, you may have tried to use your time effectively or you just idled it away and felt guilty for wasting time, but now you will be unplugging yourself from things to “do” and adjusting to a life, to just “be”. This then becomes the best part of your day. You will feel happy to just be with yourself and enjoy the freedom of being unplugged from all the “noises”. This did not come easily to me. You will be tempted to plug yourself into the noises and maybe even justify that there are things that have to be done, replied, handled and completed. The world leads us to constantly do in fact the doer and the achiever is applauded and celebrated, so we feel that we too must be doing something or maybe even multi-task at the same time. When we do this we are closing ourselves from the cry of the universe that says, “I am here.” And maybe even your own cry that says the same. We have to stop avoiding ourselves and begin to love ourselves. Dedicate some time to yourself to see what is going on inside, do not fear just do it. –Fr. Nelson

Playgroup will have a new day this year!
We will now meet on Thursdays starting October 17th from 9:30-11:00 a.m. Christina Kalmanson will be running playgroup this year with her son. If you are interested in helping with Playgroup on Thursday mornings, feel free to show up during Playgroup and speak to Christina. Playgroup is currently looking for a vacuum (in good condition) and ride on cars and big wheels to be donated. You can leave them in the office of the church with a note attached stating it is for Playgroup. Contact Debbie Rago in the church office with any questions. Playgroup is a great way for parents and kids to mingle and make life long friends. It truly is a blessing in the cold and dreary months to enjoy a big warm gym with lots of toys and local families having fun. It's a only a $30.00 donation to the church to join and that covers the entire school calendar once we start up! Hope to see you there!

SUMMER BLOOD DRIVE

You don’t need a special reason to give blood. The need is constant and your donation is important for maintaining a healthy and reliable blood supply. You’ll feel good knowing you’ve helped change a life! A summer blood drive will take place at the Ottinger Room of the Croton Free Library, 171 Cleveland Drive on Thursday, July 25 from 2:30 to 7:00 p.m. Appointments can be made by contacting crotonblood@gmail.com or 914-862-0199. Walk-ins are welcome. The drive is sponsored by the Croton Community Blood Program and the New York Blood Center. Those who donated at Croton Harmon HS on May 5 are able to donate again on July 25.

Blood Drive in Pleasantville July 31:
Get a great summer t-shirt!
The Pleasantville Volunteer Fire Department and the Pleasantville Volunteer Ambulance Corps will be hosting a Summer Blood Drive at the Pleasantville Fire House, 75 Washington Ave, on Wednesday, July 31 from 2:30 pm - 8:30 pm. Since it is also difficult to organize community drives during the summer, blood donors from all towns are welcome to come to lend their help.
During the summer, it is more difficult to maintain an adequate supply of blood products: schools and corporations have less drives, and people are away from home more than usual. If the need for blood were to spike due to any reason, lives could be lost if supplies are not on the shelf and blood needs to be shipped in from other areas.
To thank donors for helping, the NY Blood Center is offering anyone who comes a great summer t-shirt to wear proudly. Student donors (16-19) will also be given a $15 Gift Card to Dunkin’ Donuts.
For questions regarding eligibility (travel, medications, last donation, etc): call (800) 688-0900. Sign up on-line at www.nybloodcenter.org/donate-blood/ or call (800) 933-2566. Although it is helpful to let the organizers know in advance that you plan to come, walk-ins are always accepted.
Direct access to online registration:
