Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshiped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! We thank God for your presence at Holy Name of Mary and we pray for you and your families.

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 95:1-2, 6-9
If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Second Reading
Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11
There is neither Greek nor Jew, but Christ is all in all.

Gospel Reading
Luke 12:13-21
A person’s life does not consist of possessions.

Background on the Gospel Reading
In Chapter 12 of Luke's Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples and the crowd on how to be ready for the coming judgment. A crowd of many thousands has gathered to hear Jesus. At first he speaks only to the disciples, reminding them that it is not persecution they should fear but the judgment that is coming for all who do not acknowledge the Son of Man. Suddenly a man in the crowd shouts out to Jesus, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.” He seems to have grown tired of Jesus speaking only to the disciples. Jesus offers the man no help. Instead he uses the question to teach what, in light of the coming judgment, life really consist of. Jesus tells the crowd a parable. A rich man’s lands have yielded more crops than expected. His response is not to consider how he might share all the extra food with others but to wonder how he can possibly store it all. He has what he thinks is a brilliant idea: to tear down his present barns and build larger ones. Then he will have many things stored up for years of eating, drinking, and making merry.

“You fool” is God’s response to this man because that very night his life will be taken away. To whom will everything belong then, God asks. The rich man’s world is small, just him and his possessions, and now he learns that he is to lose his life. What good are his possessions now? Jesus states the moral of the story. This is how it will be for everyone who stores up treasure for himself or herself but is not rich in what matters to God.

Centuries later St. Gregory the Great taught that when we care for the needs of the poor, we are giving them what is theirs, not ours. We are not just performing works of mercy; we are paying a debt of justice. Life does not consist in possessions but in sharing what we possess with others. The goods of the earth have been given to everyone.
Sunday Notes

Have you ever had the uneasy feeling: that something is missing! That someone is not showing up! That something valuable is hidden and lost! That was and is still the thirst that I am trying to quench. Try as I might in all my years I could not lay my finger on the problem. I tried to fill the vacuum by job satisfaction and career fulfillment. That worked for some time but then again the problem reared its head and sought my attention. I laid out goals for myself and to some extent fulfilled my goals but the problem lingered on. The problem did not trouble me very much but it was the slight twinge that I felt now and then in my life that made me search and find what it was that was missing. Physical well-being, emotional peace and mental silence helped it a bit but then there it was, something missing that I could not find. What was the piece of the puzzle that was evading me?

Through all the ups and downs of life I held on to the strength I got from the Source of my being and while this was my comfort and joy I still had to search for that piece that was missing. I knew that if I searched long enough persistently I would find the missing piece. I then delved into spirituality and some of the practices recommended. I loved to meditate and could abide quietly for hours with nothing but emptiness, silence, darkness and a great feeling of spaciousness. I felt that the time spent in meditation took me away from everything that was once dear and close to me, I felt more and more that the life I spent in the world of form and appearances and change was passing and did not last and on the other hand the time spent in emptiness, silence, darkness and space was something that never changes and yet it was not boring, it was not a remaining on the surface but getting deeper into something that has no limits. The time spent in meditation made me feel free of the body and somehow with the feeling of freedom from the body I began to get glimpses of that which was lost. I was the one that I was missing. I was the one that I was searching for. I was the one who was silent, quiet, empty and dark. I think that my soul is revealing itself to me as I move away from the world and into the Light. It is in dying that we are born into life. We all have a choice, we could choose to walk in this world of form and space or we could choose to find our true selves, get in touch with what we have lost, recover it, stay with it and enjoy the fullness that we really are. While we walk in this world of form, we look through the form and see the formless in every being. While we walk in this world of change and death, we see the changeless and undying both within ourselves and within all beings. In this mode of living there is no destination, no goal, the journey is the destination and the goal has been attained.

I am the one I have been looking for, searching for, thirsting for. I am discovering it bit by bit. I know that I will keep on this discovery for all eternity.

–Fr. Nelson

Midnight Run

Midnightrun.org is a non-profit based in Dobbs Ferry and started in 1984 to help the less fortunate in NYC. They organize visits to NYC on Friday and Saturday nights by charity groups throughout the greater NYC area.

At Holy Name of Mary, we participated in our first "run" in 2008. We bring bag lunches, hot coffee, soup and clothing to the homeless on the streets of NYC about eight times per year. We spend time with the people and talk with them. They, in turn, share their stories with us. We have monthly runs scheduled. To do this, we need volunteers. Teenagers are welcome. A typical run needs three or four vans/SUV’s, 5-6 adults, 8-10 teenagers. The teenagers who attend are very moved by their experiences.

How you can help
Donations are always needed: We need new socks, new underwear, new undershirts, lightly used backpacks, t-shirts, pants, and comfortable shoes. Donations can be left in the Parish Center and labeled for Midnight Run.

We also need volunteers to buy the food, make sandwiches and bake desserts. We make 125 brown bag sandwiches, soup, coffee, fruit and fresh baked dessert.

We would like to do a "run" each month; we need more volunteers with SUVs to drive down to the city with us. We need $100-$125 to fund each run. If you want to donate, please make checks payable to Holy Name of Mary, note for Midnight run fund.

Our next run is on August 24th. Please contact us if you would like to help stage a run or go down to NYC to hand out clothing and food. Davidadler@optonline.net or 914-806-7419.

Barbara Chase Coffee Hour
This year’s coffee hour also honors Gina Costanzo and Carolyn Klingner who passed away this year. Join us to remember these faith filled women at the Chapel following the 9:15 Mass on August 11.
