Heaven is like the vineyard

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 55:6-9
Isaiah expresses an urgent plea that all should seek the Lord and turn to him for mercy.

Second Reading: Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a
In a strongly personal message from Paul while in prison, he says that he wishes “to be freed from this life and to be with Christ,” but he realizes that he still has much important work to do.

Gospel: Matthew 20:1-16a
Jesus tells the parable of the owner of an estate who hires workmen for his vineyard. When, at the end of the day, he pays a full day’s wage to those who worked only one hour, those who worked all day complained bitterly. But the owner says, “I am free to do as I please, am I not?” Jesus reminds us through this parable that “the last shall be first and the first shall be last.”

Dear Parishioners,

We are entering the season when a group of children of our parish will be receiving the Eucharist for the very first time. This year we have 40+ kids who are eagerly waiting for this great day. Of course before that they will also be receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation. So I thought that it would be beneficial for us to look again at our faith and at our belief in Sacraments.

Generally speaking, a Sacrament in the Catholic Church consists of outward signs which are instituted by Christ to give us Grace. This outward sign carries within it a hidden Mystery. In Baptism the outward sign is the pouring of water and the inner Mystery of receiving the Grace of Sonship. In Holy Communion the outward signs are the bread and wine and the inner Mystery of Grace being the presence of the Body (Flesh) and the Blood of Jesus Christ. Every Sacrament is a great Mystery of faith.

Sacraments are in fact the powers that come forth from the Body of Christ. They are the ways and means that God nourishes our being with all the help we need at various stages of our lives. Since the Sacraments proceed from the Church which is Holy and Apostolic, the Church must hold on to the Holy and Sacred Tradition. They cannot be changed or modified by the minister or the community.

Below is a link to a youtube video showing some proof of the Holy Eucharist.

The Care for Creation Ministry will be hosting a Sustainable Sunday Speaker Series event on Sunday September 27 at 3:00 pm – 4:15 pm on

Storing Renewable Energy.

Learn the remarkable story of the lithium ion battery -- how it made portable electronic devices and long-range electric vehicles possible and practical and is now accelerating the adoption of wind and solar energy.

We are fortunate to have Tom Theis from Utopus Insights and IBM speaking about this subject.

Please be part of the online Zoom presentation by logging onto https://fordham.zoom.us/j/99964223882 at 3 pm. The presentation will start shortly thereafter.

Never been on Zoom? Ask a friend or a kid to help! Ask them to stay and watch with you!

Past Sustainable Sunday presentations are available for viewing on our website www.hnmcare4creationministry.com. Scroll down on the opening page.

Beginning Monday October 5th, all weekday Masses will be held in the main Church at 12 noon.

Religious Education Update

Religious Education classes will begin on October 4, 2020 for grades pre-k to 7. You will be getting an email from your children’s teacher inviting you to a Zoom session beforehand. Grade 8 is starting this Sunday September 20th.

Fair Trade Products

We have an opportunity through Equal Exchange to order products we previously sold (coffee, chocolate, nuts, tea). These products would need to be purchased in boxes, not individually. (For example: a box of coffee contains 6 packages, a box of chocolate has 12 bars.) Holy Name of Mary has been one of the biggest sellers of Fair Trade products over the last 16 years. Covid-19 has greatly impacted the small farmers who rely on the sales of these products to make a fair living for their families.

As of now, we are planning on placing orders every other month beginning with September. If you are interested in ordering products, please call Mary or John Lally (271-5628) or email Ellen Camillieri (emc709@aol.com) for information/prices (which have not increased). Price list also available www.holynameofmary.org/news/fair-trade-products.

Orders must be placed by Monday, September 28. Pick-up/delivery will be contactless.

The cost is $160.00 per golfer.

Please register by September 21st at www.crotongolf.com or submit payment to the Parish Office and include your Name, Email & Phone number.

We will work with the course to ensure we are in accordance with Westchester County COVID guidelines.
