First Reading: 1 Samuel 3:3b-10, 19
This powerful story describes Samuel, who at the time was the servant of the high priest. The Lord called out to Samuel, who twice thought Eli had called him. They gradually realized that it was the Lord who called for him. So the third time Samuel answered and the Lord remained with Samuel as he grew.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20
Paul explains to the Corinthians that their body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. He tells them to avoid lewd conduct, and glorify God by keeping their bodies pure.

Gospel: John 1:35-42
John told two of his disciples that Jesus is the Lamb of God. They turned and followed him, immediately curious and attracted to him. Andrew told his brother Simon about Jesus. Simon also came to meet Jesus, who renamed him Cephas, or Peter.

From Fr. Nelson

January 17, 2021

Our church today stands as a beacon of light for us!

We as a parish community of believers have gone through the strangest period of our lives in the past year. We have waded through the waves of fear, the currents of isolation and endured the loss of so much of our freedom which we treasure so much. Sadly we have not yet gotten out of it, but there is hope that has sent a good many of our parishioners to register for the vaccines and wait patiently for the shots. With this in mind I call to you with the words of Christ: “Do not fear, I am with you till the end of days.”

With the generous labor of our ushers and helpful parishioners, we have the safest church we could have. The pews have been redesigned for safe social distancing, though I admit it did cause a bit of inconvenience at the beginning, we have now settled into a routine. It is good to see that everyone wears a mask all through Mass and even when outdoors. Our ushers sanitize the church after every weekend Mass and keep it safe for all who come to worship. Holy Communion is distributed in the hand, at the end of Mass on the way out. We do encourage the use of personal Mass books and have done away with common books. The entrance vestibule has been cleaned and made fresh and bright.

All this and much more has been done to welcome you back for prayer and worship. We would love to have your company when we gather around the table of the Lord and break Bread. You are sorely needed to pray with us at Sunday Mass. Every week we print a graph in our bulletin and you will notice how much space we have in the pews for you. Most weekends we have around 50% of empty seats at reduced capacity. That’s a lot of space for you to feel welcome and safe.

We are now in a period where our country needs healing. It needs to move out of insanity, fear and division and live in the peace that Christ offers to us. When we come to Mass, we join with Christ and offer ourselves as innocent lambs to Him who is the Lamb of God. As we offer our sufferings and pain to the One who died on the Cross for us, we are healed.

So my dearly beloved people, Christ waits to be proclaimed by you. He waits for you to open the door of your heart to Him and to the world. He waits to send you out as His messenger of the Good News that God is Love and all who live in love, live in God and He in them.

PEACE, LOVE, JOY.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Nelson Couto
