From the Pastor’s Desk

The month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus; This symbol has one of the deepest meaning for us Catholics. It represents Jesus Christ’s actual heart as His love for all of humanity. The Sacred Heart can be depicted a few different ways.

The most common depiction is of the heart with a circle of thorns that represent the crown of thorns that was placed on Jesus’ head. It also may have a cross, which represents the Crucifixion. Other symbols may have a flame or light surrounding it, which signifies the divine light of love.

History of the Sacred Heart
In the 14th century, Pope Innocent VI officially indicated that the Sacred Heart should be honored and worshipped. From that point on, the Sacred Heart continued to grow as a major symbol of worship throughout the Roman Catholic religion. The vision of the symbol spread throughout the world and became a worldwide symbol of love and devotion.

Worshipping the Sacred Heart
The Feast of the Sacred Heart was introduced in 1856 and has been celebrated every year since then, which occurs 19 days after Pentecost. The first country in the world to be consecrated to the Sacred Heart was Ecuador.

The worship of the Sacred Heart can be done in a variety of forms. The most common forms of worship include hymns, the Litany of the Sacred Heart and also the Salutation of the Sacred Heart. Roman Catholic services worldwide still follow these practices today.

It would be very good for us to install an image of the Sacred Heart into our homes. It would also be very meaningful for our families to have the ceremony of the Enthronement of the Sacred Heart, and it occurs when a priest enters a home to bless the Sacred Heart. Either a picture or a statue of the Sacred Heart is blessed and placed in a special location in the home to serve as a reminder of worship and devotion. When in the home, the Sacred Heart signifies the foundation of God’s kingdom amongst individuals and families. Many Catholics do have a central place in their homes for the image of the Sacred Heart.

The Sacred Heart symbol can be found in Catholic churches and homes across the world. It can be represented as a picture, statue, art in stained glass or any other depictions. When the image is displayed in homes, it is common to have the names of the family members engraved near the symbol as a reminder that each member of the family is being protected by Jesus in the Sacred Heart.

The Sacred Heart Brings Peace
Among other things, the Sacred Heart brings peace to families and individuals because of what it signifies. Even though the Sacred Heart suffered in the past, the light still shines brightly and brings warmth during tough times. Worshipping the Sacred Heart during tough times brings some of the most peaceful moments to families and individuals because of the unconditional love that is symbolizes.

When people pray to the Sacred Heart, they will often feel a greater sense of security knowing that they are being watched over and protected. That is one of the many reasons why Roman Catholics wish to have a depiction of the Sacred Heart in their homes to serve as a reminder. Above all else, the Sacred Heart is a clear reminder of the love and devotion of Jesus to all of humanity, despite the suffering that has been and still is endured.

Yours in Christ,
Rev. Nelson Couto

Next week’s 2nd collection is split between the following causes:

Collection for the Church in Latin America

For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Catholic Home Missions Appeal

Today, over 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.
Bread for the World’s 2021 Offering of Letters

Did you know that across the world more than 270 million people are facing extreme hunger - up from 135 million before the pandemic; and that in the U.S. 1 in 4 children are at risk of hunger and 40 per cent Black and Latino families struggle feeding children.

This year’s Offering of Letters (our 43rd in Croton) builds on last year’s work as Bread members continue to urge Congress to expand anti-hunger programs in response to the pandemic and increase funding for nutrition programs.

Please join us by sending your e-letters online to our Congressman Mondaire Jones and both Senators Charles Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand with a single form.

It’s simple. To do so just click on – or copy into your browser http://www.bread.org/go

Then fill in your required contact information, personalize your message a bit (if you can), and with one click your letter will be sent to each of our 3 U.S. representatives!
