Sunday Connection
This Sunday’s Readings

First Reading
Isaiah 50:5-9a
The suffering servant of Yahweh is assured of God’s help.

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 116:1-2,3-4,5-6,8-9
A prayer of praise to God for his salvation

Second Reading
James 2:14-18
James teaches that faith must be demonstrated in one’s works.

Gospel Reading
Mark 8:27-35
Peter declares that Jesus is the Christ, and Jesus teaches that those who would follow him must take up his or her cross.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today’s reading is the turning point in Mark’s Gospel. In the presentation of the life and ministry of Jesus found in the Gospel of Mark, the deeds of Jesus have shown Jesus to be the Son of God. Yet many, including Jesus’ disciples, have not yet realized his identity. In today’s Gospel, Jesus asks the disciples for a field report by asking what others say about him. He then turns the question directly to the disciples and asks what they believe. Peter speaks for all of them when he announces that they believe Jesus to be the Christ.

The word Christ is the Greek translation of the Hebrew word for Messiah, which means “the anointed one.” At the time of Jesus, the image of the Messiah was laden with popular expectations, most of which looked for a political leader who would free the Jewish people from Roman occupation. Jesus does not appear to have used this term for himself. As we see in today’s reading, Jesus refers to himself instead as the Son of Man, a term derived from the Jewish Scriptures, found in the Book of Daniel and in other apocryphal writings. Many scholars suggest that the phrase Son of Man is best understood to mean “human being.”

Now that the disciples have acknowledged Jesus as the Christ, Jesus confides in them the outcome of his ministry: he will be rejected, must suffer and die, and will rise after three days. Peter rejects this prediction, and Jesus rebukes him severely. The image of Christ that Jesus is giving is not the image of the Messiah that Peter was expecting. Jesus then teaches the crowd and the disciples about the path of discipleship: To be Christ’s disciple is to follow in the way of the cross.

We can easily miss the fear that Jesus’ words must have evoked in his disciples. Death by crucifixion was all too familiar as a method of execution in Roman-occupied territories. It was also an omnipresent danger to the Christian community for whom Mark wrote. The path that Jesus was inviting his disciples to share meant tremendous suffering and death. This is the kind of radical commitment and sacrifice that Jesus calls us to adopt for the sake of the Gospel.

Fair Trade Products

Once again, we have an opportunity to order Fair Trade products we have previously sold. These products would need to be purchased in boxes, not individually. (We are hopeful to be able to sell in person once again in the near future.) Holy Name of Mary has been one of the biggest sellers of Fair Trade products over the last 17 years. Even now, Covid-19 continues to impact the small farmers from around the world who rely on the sales of these products to make a fair living for their families. We would like to continue to support these farmers.

If you are interested in ordering or have any questions, please call John or Mary Lally (271-5628) or email/call Ellen Camillieri (emc709@aol.com or call: 271-5335).

We encourage you to check our website for prices and products. All orders must be placed by Monday, September 20. Thank you!

The Laudato Si Movement

Angelica Gonzalez-Apple, North American Program Manager for the organization formerly known as the Global Catholic Climate Movement will enlighten us about the initiatives of the LSM, including its youth group arm, the Laudato Si Generation, the relationship of LSM within the Catholic Church, US Conference of Bishops, and other faith-based groups. Please attend this event to learn about this initiative within the church and as part of the Season of Creation (9/1 through 10/4).

Please pass the word about this presentation to others who may not receive the Bulletin.

Login at 2:45 for the Sunday program and chit-chat with fellow attendees.

Bookmark our Zoom address for these and future programs.

Recordings and slides from past Sustainable Sunday presentations are available for viewing on our website www.hnmcare4creationministry.com.

Go to the More menu on the upper right and select Resources.

The Care for Creation Ministry is looking for new members. Please contact Bernie Yozwiak byozwiak@optonline.net to join our FUN GROUP!

DEVOTIONAL CANDLES

Have you lit a candle in memory of a loved one? Don’t forget that our candelabra is located at the back of the church at Our Lady’s Chapel. Large candles are $2 and small candles are $1. Simply put your donation in the slot and press down on one of the candles.

The family of Eileen O’Connor invites you to attend her Memorial Mass on September 18th at 10 am. Reception at Fino’s to follow. Eileen and late husband Charles were long time parishioners dating all the way back to 1957.

Welcome to our HNM Family!

We had several new families join our parish this week. We’d like to welcome the Cohens, Conticellos, Milavskys and Marquies.
