Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshiped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! We thank God for your presence at Holy Name of Mary and we pray for you and your families.

Are you a “cultural Catholic”?

We are at that time of the year when a group of our teenagers will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. Maybe this is a good moment in our lives to take a good hard look at what baptism means to us and how we intend to put it to work in our lives. A recent survey shows that a huge percentage of teenagers rarely go to church, if at all, and yet consider themselves a Catholic. They are called “cultural Catholics” because of their values or the way they live. They often have children of their own and bring them to be baptized out of some vague sense of guilt, or to please their grandparents or just to “play it safe.” These children, in turn grow up with little or no example of religious commitment from their parents and they often wonder what the big deal is.

Many remain indifferent for their whole lives while a few do decide to take up the following of Christ. This means more than going for Mass, as important as that is, it means finding a place for prayer in our daily routine. It means living by Christ’s values and standards which are not the same as those of the people around us.

Luke 12:15, Jesus says, “Avoid greed in all its forms. A man may be wealthy, but his possessions do not guarantee him life”. If we believe that, we are already out of step with nearly all those who put up commercials and most of those who watch them. Another way in which Baptism challenges us seriously is in our standards of sexual morality. They will contrast sharply with large numbers of our neighbors, and we really can’t have it both ways. Jesus also tells us that we have a special responsibility toward the poor and the weak, because they are most dear to his Father. This is in the face of a culture that tells us over and over that our only duty is to ourselves, to get as much as we can and enjoy it to the fullest without worrying about anybody else.

It is a demanding, challenging way of life to which Jesus calls us by our Baptism. By ourselves none of us could live up to it. But God’s grace is always available to us and never fails. Baptism and Confirmation is the beginning of great things. Expect them to keep happening! Confirmation gives us an opportunity to take possession of our Catholic heritage and to become followers of Christ by personal decision. The effects of Confirmation may be experienced every day, even though you may rarely take notice.

Yours in Christ,
