Gospel Reading
Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21
In the synagogue at Nazareth, Jesus reads aloud from the scroll of the prophet Isaiah and announces that this Scripture is now fulfilled.

Background on the Gospel Reading
Today's Gospel reading combines two separate passages taken from the Gospel of Luke. First we hear the opening verses where Luke establishes the purpose of his Gospel. His style is typical of polished Greek and Roman literature. In this passage, we learn that Luke may have written to a specific person, Theophilus; but the word Theophilus may also be a general reference, functioning as the phrase “Dear Reader” might in contemporary writing. In Greek, the word Theophilus translates as “lover of God.”

Today's Gospel reading then skips several chapters in which one would find the Infancy Narratives, Jesus' baptism by John, the temptations Jesus faced in the desert, and the beginning of Jesus’ public ministry. In chapter four of Luke's Gospel, we hear that Jesus is in his hometown of Nazareth, attending the synagogue on the Sabbath, which is said to be his custom. In this account, we find another important clue that Jesus lived as a faithful, observant Jew. We will continue to read from Luke's Gospel in sequence for the next two Sundays.

As Jesus stands in the synagogue, he reads from the scroll handed to him; it contains the words of the prophet Isaiah. At this early moment in his ministry, Jesus announces his mission in continuity with Israel's prophetic tradition. This reading from Isaiah defines Jesus' ministry. We will find more evidence of this as we continue to read from Luke's Gospel throughout the year. Jesus' ministry will include bringing glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, healing to the sick, freedom to the oppressed, and proclaiming a year acceptable to the Lord.

Through this text from Isaiah, Jesus announces God's salvation. The “year acceptable to the Lord” is a reference to the Jewish tradition of Sabbath years and jubilee. The Sabbath year was observed every seventh year. It was a year of rest when land was left fallow and food stores were to be shared equally with all. A year of Jubilee was celebrated every fiftieth year, the conclusion of seven cycles of Sabbath years. It was a year of renewal in which debts were forgiven and slaves were freed.

This tradition of Jubilee is the framework for God's promise of salvation. And yet in Jesus, something new begins. Jesus not only announces God's salvation, he brings this salvation about in his person. Jesus is Yahweh's Anointed One, filled with the Spirit of God. The Kingdom of God is now at hand. It is made present in Jesus, in his life, death, and Resurrection. Jesus will send the Holy Spirit so that the Kingdom of God can be fulfilled.

The Holy Spirit is Jesus' gift to the Church. The Holy Spirit enables the Church to continue the mission of Jesus. When we do what Jesus did—bring glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, healing to the sick, and freedom to the oppressed—we serve the Kingdom of God.

Proceedings - HNM Pastoral Council Meeting 12/13/21

A quorum being present, a virtual meeting was called to order and opened with an Advent prayer. Previous meeting Minutes were amended and approved.

Reports from Facilities Management, Religious Education, Montessori School, Standing Committees, and several ministries, organizations, and groups constituting the Worship, Ministry, and Youth Clusters of the PC were discussed. Volunteers with practical experience in building maintenance who are willing to help HNM cope with urgent repairs are sought by HNM Administration; call the Parish Office @ 914-271-4797 to join this team.

Review of Cardinal Dolan’s HNM visit included concerns about short advance notice. An ad hoc committee to devise procedural guidelines for hosting such events is being formed; parishioner members as well as leaders from various HNM ministries/groups will be included to assure proper coordination.

Reviewing and updating the status and function of PC ministries, groups and committees is in progress. The PC Constitution & Bylaws will need amending to accommodate changes envisioned.

Changing the frequency of PC meetings to 6-7 per year is under consideration. An updated schedule will be considered by the PC Executive Committee then presented to the full PC for discussion and possible adoption at the following meeting.

A new interfaith consortium assisting Afghanistan refugees to resettle in local areas including Croton/Ossining/ Pleasantville/Briarcliff was described by guest speaker Regina Montana. She will be keeping HNM apprised of future needs as they arise. Contact Regina at 914-271-2334 with any questions or to learn more about this program.

Upcoming events and programs of interest were announced.

With a Closing Prayer offered by Fr. Nelson, the meeting was adjourned.

Next meeting date: Monday, Feb. 14, 2022 (St. Valentine’s Day)
