THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD JANUARY 10, 2016

First Reading: Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

Isaiah tells of the Lord's Servant, who will be inconspicuous, but will not rest until justice is established. The Lord then tells his servant that he was formed to be "a light for the nations."

Second Reading: Acts 10:34-38

Peter speaks to a group of pagans for the first time. He explains to them that any person who follows God's will is acceptable to God, regardless of nationality.

Gospel: Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

John the Baptist had claimed one would come far more powerful than himself, one who would baptize with the Holy Spirit rather than water. When Jesus came to John and was baptized, the Spirit descended on him and a voice said, "You are my beloved Son. On you my favor rests."

SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

The Baptism of the Lord January 10, 2016

"...the man of any nation who fears God and acts uprightly is acceptable to him. This is the message he has sent to the sons of Israel, 'the good news of peace' proclaimed through Jesus Christ who is Lord of all... I take it you know what has been reported all over Judea about Jesus of Nazareth, beginning in Galilee with the baptism John proclaimed, of the way God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good."

This teaching of Peter led Cornelius and his family to baptism and Christ. We listen to the words and realize that we too have been baptized, led to Christ and yes, even anointed with the Holy Spirit and power. We too come up from our Jordan, our baptismal font, and hear the similar words of praise "You are my Son. On you my favor rests."

It is easy to picture the event, the people, the rippling water, a gentle breeze. We might include a word of teaching by John the Baptist. Jesus began His mission. 'The mission of Christ the Redeemer He has entrusted to His church', wrote Saint John Paul II. That mission continues today and we are all the hands, the face, the voice of Christ to others. At our baptism we were anointed with oil and the Holy Spirit. We have been given power to do what Jesus did 'going about doing good.'

Parishioner's Testimony

"This experience is a small step in helping my family understand the spirit of tithing which is no less than the spirit of what it means to be church in the first place."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

St. Anthony (Antony), born in Egypt, is honored as the founder of monasticism. At age 20 he literally took the Gospel injunction to sell everything he had and give it to the poor. From then on he led an austere, ascetical life, devoting himself to prayer and reading the scriptures. He did manual labor to earn his food and gave any excess he had to the poor. Though he preferred solitude, he took time to give guidance and instructions to the many that lived an ascetical life in the desert. He organized them into monasteries, laying the foundation for monasticism. He had renounced the world to serve God in the solitude of the desert and was called "the friend of God". We ask through his intercession the grace to keep in proper perspective the material things we have and to live in a spirit of detachment from them through self denial. We also ask for the grace to understand the love of God above all things.
