“Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls. Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves. Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep yourself unstained by the world.” The letter of St. James offers us clear, practical examples for Christian living for today. He could have invented the current expression, ‘Walk the walk, don’t just talk the talk.’ How clearly I can recall the summer school of Catholic action at Fordham in New York calling young people to apostolic action. The foundation of it all was found in the Word of God, which we read daily, listen to weekly, and discover ways to live it. Welcome that word. The Word of God from the beginning addressed the needs of the most vulnerable. They were represented by orphans and widows, but today we might add single mothers, ex-offenders, immigrants and those marginalized in our society. If we feel uncomfortable with current examples, good. As we respond to them, we are keeping ourselves unstained by the world.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Questo popolo mi onora con le

labbra, ma il suo cuore è lontano da me”. Nella discussione tra Gesù e i farisei si percepiscono forti tensioni. Oggetto del dibattito è la “religione pura” (Gc 1,27). Gesù pone al centro di essa il cuore dell’uomo e la sua liberazione dal male, mentre i farisei difendono il rituale esteriore della religione venuta da Dio. “Il suo cuore è lontano da me”. Tutti dobbiamo ammettere questa verità, che noi non controlliamo il nostro cuore. Quanti vorrebbero smettere di bere troppo e non lo possono fare? Prendiamo anche il noto esempio del grande santo della Chiesa dei primi secoli, il cui cuore fu così diviso, per molti anni, da spingerlo a pregare così: “Signore rendimi casto, ma non subito!” (Sant’Agostino). Quanti vorrebbero disfarsi dell’invidia e dell’orgoglio e, invece, si sorprendono a fare il contrario? “Non quello che voglio io faccio, ma quello che detesto” (Rm 7,15). Spesso ci rendiamo conto di questo per la prima volta quando cominciamo a prendere più seriamente la nostra fede e a seguire più da vicino un modo di vita cristiano. Ci stupiamo della nostra tendenza a ripetere gli stessi errori e a ricadere nello stesso peccato. Cominciamo a capire il grido di san Paolo: “Sono uno sventurato! Chi mi libererà da questo corpo votato alla morte?” (Rm 7,24). “Il suo cuore è lontano da me”. Il fine della vita cristiana è l’unione con Dio e l’unità con il prossimo. Per raggiungere questo scopo, dobbiamo innanzi tutto essere liberi dalla schiavitù delle cattive intenzioni. Dobbiamo conquistarci la libertà! Quest’impresa è interamente opera della grazia del Redentore. Così Gesù promette: “Se dunque il Figlio vi farà liberi, sarete liberi davvero” (Gv 8,36). La Chiesa cattolica non ha per fine quello di dare spettacolo, ma piuttosto quello di adempiere ad un dovere semplice e divino: la conversione della nostra vita grazie ad un cambiamento di cuore, ispirato dalla grazia. La Chiesa ritiene che, facendo ciò, ha fatto tutto mentre, se non fa ciò, non vale la pena di fare nient’altro. Essa prega, predica e soffre per un vero battesimo del cuore, a fine di liberarlo perché accolga Cristo.

“Dejen de lado, entonces, toda impureza y todo resto de maldad, y reciban con docilidad la Palabra sembrada en ustedes, que es capaz de salvarlos. Pongan en pr3ctica la Palabra y no se contenten s3lo con o3rla, de manera que se engañen a ustedes mismos. La religiosidad pura y sin mancha delante de Dios, nuestro Padre, consiste en ocuparse de los hu3rfanos y de las viudas cuando est3n necesitados, y en no contaminarse con el mundo.” La carta de Santiago nos ofrece claros y pr3cticos ejemplos para nuestra vida cristiana hoy. El pudo haber acuñado la expresi3n “Predica con el ejemplo”. Claramente puedo recordar la escuela veraniega de acci3n cat3lica en Fordham, Nueva York, llamando a los j3venes a acci3n apost3lica. La fundaci3n de todo esto se encontraba en la Palabra de Dios, la cual le3mos a diario, la escuch3bamos cada semana y descubrimos formas de vivirla. Bienvenida sea esa palabra. La Palabra de Dios desde un principi3 trataba de las necesidades de los m3s vulnerables. Se presentaban como hu3rfanos y viudas, pero hoy podemos agregar madres solteras, exconvictos, inmigrantes y todos los marginalizados por nuestra sociedad. Si nos sentimos inc3modos con los presentes ejemplos, pues qu3 bueno. Al responderles, nos mantenemos sin mancha por la palabra.
