Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time June 21, 2015

First Reading: Job 38:1, 8-11

Yahweh, having asked Job about his absence at the event, describes the creation of the sea in poetic terms as a newborn baby needing His care.

Second Reading: II Corinthians 5:14-17

Paul insists that a radical change of thinking and living must be part of the life of a true apostle. Christ's life is the model.

Gospel: Mark 4:35-41

This calming of the storm is the first of three miraculous actions of Jesus presented to us by Mark. The turbulent sea was an ancient symbol of the powers of chaos warring against God. Mark wants us to answer the question of Jesus' identity based on the evidence he supplies.
