From the Desk of Fr. Tom:

THE EUCHARIST, CONTINUED ...

Last week, on the feast of Corpus Christi, the Holy Body and Blood of Christ, I wrote about the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. This week, I would like to reflect for a few moments on what that real presence means for us.

Primarily, it means that when we come to Mass, we come to WORSHIP. We come for an encounter with the living God. We come to offer Him our praise and our thanksgiving for the many blessings He has bestowed on us, and particularly for the gift of Christ in the Eucharist. So how do we approach Mass?

It is difficult, and almost painful sometimes, to look out from the altar and see the lack of interest in what is going on. We often forget that our God is present, and because we have Mass week after week, we are sometimes thoroughly distracted from the real meaning of what is going on. BUT IT IS OUR CHANCE TO BE WITH GOD. In a way that cannot be repeated or copied, we have an opportunity to be with God, to worship Him, and to receive the very Body and Blood of His Only Begotten Son. If that doesn't wake us up, nothing will. It is wonderful to have good music, good preaching and the other externals, but if our hearts are not in it, the rest won't make much of a difference. So what do we do? Here are a few tips.

- ◆ Arrive at Mass a few minutes early in order to prepare yourself.
- ◆ Dress appropriately for Mass – I know this can be a touchy subject, but I daresay that if Jesus were coming to your home, you would not greet Him in shorts and flip-flops. Mass is a big deal. It calls for appropriate vesture. And both our churches are air conditioned, so the heat should not be an issue.
- ◆ PARTICIPATE – really pray the prayers and sing the hymns. Don't just mutter the Amen – let it mean what it means – I BELIEVE. St. Augustine says to sing is to pray twice. Let God hear your voice as we honor Him for all that He has done.
- ◆ Receive communion reverently. Take the time in the procession to ask the Holy Spirit to make you properly disposed to receive Jesus. And in the moment between the music and the final prayer, say a thanksgiving to God for this great gift.
- ◆ Stay to the end – so many people rush out after communion. You miss the opportunity to have a moment or two of peace to pray, to hear what is going on in the parish, and to receive the final blessing. Don't be in such a rush. God will make sure you get everything done.

If we really attempt to make Mass a time of worship, we will find ourselves growing closer to God by leaps and bounds. It is our most intimate contact with Jesus. Let us treat it like it matters.

God bless you.
