Merry Christmas!

Dear Parishioners,

I give thanks to God on this, my first Christmas in this wonderful parish. I am grateful for the warmth and goodness of all of you. Your generosity is remarkable!

I also give thanks for all the wonderful people who do so much here! First of all, Msgr. Barry and Fr. Tom, my associates, as well as Fr. Donal, Deacon Scheibe, Deacon Kenny and Fr. Matthew. There are also the great parish staff, ministers and many volunteers. I could not do my work without the assistance of so many. Everyone together makes this parish a true family of faith. May the Lord continue to keep us strong in His service!

Please know of my gratitude, love and prayers.

Blessed Christmas and New Year!

A Note from the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

At many of the Masses for Christmas, you will once again hear the chorus of the angels from that first Christmas day: "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."

The Son of God came into the world so that all people would be able to experience God's love for us, give glory to God and feel His peace in our lives. Sometimes we might be able to say that there is not peace everywhere on earth or peace in every person's heart, but Christ offers that peace and promises that peace today just as He did when He was born more than 2,000 years ago.

As Catholic Christians, we profess our faith that Jesus came into the world to overcome evil and darkness and conquer sin and death. Jesus was born to bring God's light into the world and bring new life which lasts forever.

The joy that people find on Christmas day, even if there are reasons to be sad or fearful, comes from the knowledge that God is with us and will never leave us on our own. When God decided to lower Himself and take on our human flesh, He revealed that there is nothing He will not do for us. God did not have to humble Himself, or take on our human limitations in the person of Jesus, and suffer for us. He did all of this because of His infinite love for us. Jesus taught us, and continues to teach us, that love conquers all.

Even as a tiny child in the manger at Bethlehem, the Christ child is the sign to all the world that God can do all things and change the world, and the life of each one of us, forever. He is with us and He wants us to be with Him for all eternity.

God Bless us all this Christmas!

Sincerely in Christ,

Monsignor Giandurco
