All:

Paul, an Apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God,
and Timothy our brother,
to the Church of God that is at Corinth,
with all the holy ones throughout Achaia:
grant to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the Father of compassion and the God of all encouragement,
who encourages us in our every affliction, so that we may be able to encourage those who are in any affliction with the encouragement with which we ourselves are encouraged by God.

For as Christ’s sufferings overflow to us,
so through Christ does our encouragement also overflow.
If we are afflicted,
    it is for your encouragement and salvation;
if we are encouraged,
    it is for your encouragement,
which enables you to endure the same sufferings that we suffer.

Our hope for you is firm,
    for we know that as you share in the sufferings,
you also share in the encouragement.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.
RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R<sup>r</sup> (9a) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the LORD at all times;
his praise shall be ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the LORD;
the lowly will hear me and be glad. R<sup>r</sup>

Glorify the LORD with me,
let us together extol his name.
I sought the LORD, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears. R<sup>r</sup>

Look to him that you may be radiant with joy,
and your faces may not blush with shame.
When the poor one called out, the LORD heard,
and from all his distress he saved him. R<sup>r</sup>

The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.
Taste and see how good the LORD is;
blessed the man who takes refuge in him. R<sup>r</sup>

ACCLAMATION BEFORE THE GOSPEL

Rejoice and be glad;
for your reward will be great in heaven.
When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain,
and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him.
He began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.
Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.
Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.
Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward will be great in heaven.
Thus they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion

The reception of Holy Communion is the most sacred act for Catholics. We believe that we are then receiving the Body and Blood of Christ. Catholics who are properly prepared should approach the ministers of Holy Communion.

We ask non-Catholics not to receive. They are encouraged, however, to come forward with arms crossed over their heart to receive a blessing.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.
"O Living Bread from Heaven"

AURELIA

1. O living bread from heaven, How well you fed your guest!
2. Lord Jesus, here you led me With in your holiest place,
3. You gave me all I wanted, This food can death destroy;
4. Lord, grant me that, thus strengthened With heav'nly food, while here

1. The gifts that you have given Have filled my heart with rest.
2. And here yourself have fed me With treasures of your grace;
3. And you have freely granted The cup of endless joy.
4. My course on earth is lengthened, I serve with holy fear,

1. O wondrous food of blessing, O cup that heals our woes,
2. And you have freely given What earth could never buy,
3. O Lord, I do not merit The favor you have shown,
4. And when you call my spirit To leave this world below,

1. My heart, this gift possessing, With praises overflows!
2. The bread of life from heaven, That I may never die.
3. And all my soul and spirit Bow down before your throne.
4. I enter through your merit, Where joys unmingled flow.
1. O bless the Lord, my soul! His grace to thee proclaim!
2. O bless the Lord, my soul! And all that is with -
3. He clothes thee with his love; Up -
4. Then bless his holy name, Whose merits bear in mind!

1. O bless the Lord, my soul! His grace to thee proclaim!
2. O bless the Lord, my soul! And all that is with -
3. He clothes thee with his love; Up -
4. Then bless his holy name, Whose merits bear in mind!

1. in - me join To bless his holy name!
2. bene - fits! The Lord to thee is kind.
3. fir - mities And ransoms thee from death.
4. crowns thy days! O bless the Lord, my soul!
GUIDELINES FOR THE RECEPTION OF COMMUNION

FOR CATHOLICS
As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (Code of Canon Law, canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

FOR OUR FELLOW CHRISTIANS
We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ’s prayer for us “that they may all be one” (John 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 §4). Members of Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own Churches. According to Roman Catholic Discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of Communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 §3).

FOR THOSE NOT RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION
All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

FOR NON-CHRISTIANS
We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.
