RECEPTION OF THE BODY AT CHURCH

The Rite of Reception takes place at the beginning of the Funeral Mass. Following the celebrant's greeting and sprinkling of the coffin with holy water, a white funeral pall (covering), which reminds us of the white garment given at Baptism signifying life in Christ, is placed on the coffin. You may want to have two family members do this. Let the Funeral Director know.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

You may choose one or two scripture selections for the Funeral Mass: one from the Old Testament (Readings #1-6), and/or one from the New Testament (Readings #7-22). (During the fifty days of the Easter season, choose two New Testament readings.) Catholic family members or Catholic friends may proclaim the first and second readings. A large type text of the Readings you choose will be on the pulpit for use by the Readers. This booklet of scripture readings should be used only to prepare.

Since there are usually more family members and friends present the last night of the wake, a eulogy can be more effective in the funeral home. Otherwise, Seton Parish provides time at the beginning of the Mass. The eulogy is limited to three minutes (500 words).
