SPECIAL OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE YOUR NEIGHBORS

A mother of six living in Peekskill walks to the homes of those she cares for in Peekskill & Cortlandt because she cannot afford a car or insurance. Recently, Mom was struck by a car while walking to work. Fortunately she was not seriously injured. But, this does present a special opportunity to volunteer to take her to and from work.

A gentleman living at Society Hill III in Peekskill is bedridden. He is looking for a male companion to visit and chat, especially in the areas of sports and current events.

If you think you can help these individuals, please call Susan Goderre, Advocate for Those With a Need at 914-261-6842.

This Thursday we celebrate the Ascension of our Lord into heaven. It is a Holy Day of obligation but I hope we will come to Mass not begrudgingly but with joy and thanksgiving. Some areas of the country have moved the feast from Thursday to the following Sunday. We in New York and other areas of the east still celebrate the Ascension on Thursday, forty days after Jesus rose from the dead. Although the intention of moving the feast to Sunday is to have more people attend this celebration, fewer and fewer people are attending Mass even on Sundays.

Our boys and girls will receive their First Holy Communion on Saturday, May 7. I hope our first communicants will always treasure the great gift (magnum donum) of receiving the true Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus and desire to receive every Sunday and Holy Day at Mass. May we all show our faith in the True Presence of Jesus by how we dress and act at Mass and how we live our lives as Catholics.

In Jesus and Mary,
Fr. Frank Samoylo
