CARMELITE YEAR OF VOCATIONS

“It is love alone that gives worth to all things.”

~ St. Teresa of Avila

Each person yearns for God even though they may not have the words to express that desire. Where is this yearning leading you? Is God calling you to grow in holiness as a Carmelite friar? Contact the Vocation Office at 344-2225 or email: vocations@carmelites.com

MORNING OF REFLECTION

As a follow up to the Spirituality of Vatican II and the universal call to holiness that comes with our Baptism, a Morning of Reflection is offered. Come and experience a personal encounter with Jesus in several scriptural settings.

Pat Davies will be facilitating “Come to the Water” this Saturday, November 2. The day begins at 8:45 a.m. with refreshments and the program runs from 9 a.m.-noon. Signup sheets are at the church doors.

LEAVING A GIFT FOR ST. PAUL’S

Put your lifelong, hard-earned assets to work for the Lord. A planned sacrificial gift acknowledges that we are simply stewards of all that God has provided. We are managers of His blessings upon us. Just as we sacrificially give throughout our lives, we should consider giving our final gift at the end of our lives here on earth in similar fashion.

By leaving gifts to St. Paul's, our charity does not end when we are gone. As we enter eternal life, so too does our gift.

‘A COFFEE A DAY’ REFLECTION

October 27, 2019 - 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“…for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” (Luke 18:14)

Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable, your talent is so much better than anyone else’s and that your money gives you status also makes those things “gods” before God. Remember: All those gifts were God-given.

Instead, we should be humbled by God’s abundant generosity and our hearts should overflow with gratitude.

THE SAINTS COME MARCHING IN
The feast of All Saints Day reflects the spiritual connection between those in Heaven and on Earth. It also reminds us of our connectedness as Christians.

In the early years when Christians were persecuted by the Roman Empire, as martyrs died for their faith, the Church set aside special days to honor them. Ultimately, there were too many martyrs for each to be given a day, so they were remembered collectively. In the eighth century, November 1 was designated as that day of remembrance by Pope Gregory III.

All Saints Day is dedicated to the saints or all who have attained heaven. Although millions or even billions of people may already be saints, observances tend to focus on known saints or those recognized in the Canon of the Saints by the Catholic Church.

All Saints Day should not be confused with All Souls Day, which is observed on November 2, and is dedicated to commemorating the faithful departed.

All Saints Day is a Holy Day of Obligation. Mass will be celebrated at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. Friday, November 1. Please plan to celebrate with us,

ALL SOULS REMEMBRANCE
Each November, the whole Church prays for the souls of the deceased. Our faith teaches us that, being made in the image and likeness of God, we are also made to be with Him for eternity.

Our prayers for the souls of the dead express a loving and prayerful desire that these souls should share the same destiny to which we aspire - and to give them encouragement. We do this in a very profound way during Mass, when we are united to the heavenly liturgy and in the sacramental presence of Jesus Christ.

If you would like your loved one remembered in a special way at all the Masses this month, then please complete the All Souls Remembrance envelope, which you can find in your box of envelopes or at the entrances to the church, and return it in the collection basket or to the church office.

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME ENDS
The good news is, there’s an extra hour of sleep next Saturday night with the end of Daylight Savings Time. But the bad news is it’ll be dark by late afternoon.

Regardless, remember to set your clocks back an hour next Saturday night; otherwise, you’ll be an hour early for Sunday Mass.

SENIOR THANKSGIVING DINNER
If you’re a registered parishioner age 60 or older, you’re in luck – even without the wishbone.

After Mass on Saturday, Nov. 23, you have the opportunity once again to enjoy a Thanksgiving Dinner with all the trimmings - including festive libations – and with one guest of your choice!

All you need do is sign up, keeping in mind that seating is not unlimited. There are sheets at the church doors.

There is no cost to partake in this bounty, but if you’d like to bring a dessert to share, it would be most welcomed by Team Dzurilla. For more information, contact Rick Dzurilla at 646-208-3552.

HELP FILL THANKSGIVING BASKETS
And speaking of Thanksgiving, a beautiful way to express gratitude for the abundance in our lives is by sharing with those less fortunate.

Here’s an opportunity to do so.

We’re now collecting the following items for our Thanksgiving Baskets – to be followed just a few weeks later by Christmas Baskets. We expect to serve at least 70 families at each holiday. Along with cash donations, we could use:

- Turkeys / Hams / Roasting Chickens
- Stuffing
- Gravy
- Canned Yams
- Cranberry Sauce
- Tea
- Instant Mashed Potatoes
- Mayonnaise
- Canned Peas, Corn
- Canned Fruit
- Sugar
- Packaged Cookies
- Apple Juice
- Cocoa
- Canned Green Beans
- Ground Coffee

Thank you!

IN THE LOOP
The Archdiocesan Men’s Conference, “Men of Character in Today’s World,” runs from 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. this Saturday, November 2, in the SUNY Purchase Performing Arts Center. The $30 fee includes a boxed lunch. Cardinal Dolan and others will speak. For information, visit archny.org and register through the eventbrite link on its website.
