

FATHER PAT'S SERMON NOTES

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Real Needs Require Real Presence

There was a struggling parish that was shrinking in numbers at such an alarming rate that the pastor placed a large sign on the front lawn of the church that read: "Everyone who attends church here next Sunday will receive a one hundred dollar bill as you leave!" To his great delight the church was packed the following weekend and as the time of worship came to an end the people anxiously approached the ushers by the exits to receive their promised reward. The ushers handed each individual an envelope with a crisp $100 bill enclosed. However, as the people began opening the envelopes on the way out they quickly realized that the bills were smaller than normal - and bright yellow!

Though Monopoly money clearly has printed on it "$100" it's not the real thing. It's symbolic money. The problem of course with symbolic money is that it can't do anything to help with your REAL bills! A symbolic solution to real problems just doesn't cut it! St Paul asks: "Is not the cup we bless a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ?" (1 Corinthians 10:16). Paul is clearly speaking rhetorically here which means that his question is actually an emphatic statement: "Duh! Of course it is as sharing in Christ's body and blood!" In other words, it's not just symbolic. It's for real. And that is great news for us who have real issues, real fears, real challenges and real needs.

Christianity is radical precisely in its tangible expression. Jesus again and again shocks his hearers on this point whether pointing out that his flesh is real food and blood real drink (John 6:55) or saying that he is truly present in the poor: "whatever you did to the least... you did it to me" (Matthew 25). We don't have a Savior who promises only to "be there is spirit" or symbolically. No, we have a redeemer who every day becomes radically accessible to us on altars all across world! The Eucharist is proof that Jesus did not retreat from us when he ascended into heaven! No, when he was born in a manger and died on a cross... he was just getting started when it comes to his desire to be as close to us as possible! The Holy Eucharist is extreme. So is God's love. In it Jesus assures us that as long as we dwell on this earth in the flesh, so will he! How would our lives, our priorities and our attitude toward ourselves and others be different if we actually believed that Jesus was truly present in the Eucharist and in those most in need in our society? I suspect that we would not settle for being counterfeit Christians... because our world desperately needs us - needs you - to be the real thing.
