Updates on Church properties:

- The oil tank was tested for leaks and we are in the midst of diagnosing where the water is coming from.
- At the same time, we are checking the health of our air conditioning systems. We will find out what needs to be done to keep them running as well as their age will allow.
- The Ramp replacement will be delayed due to the oil tank investigation. When the ramp is replaced, at the same time it will be extended to the porch of the Rectory.
- The faucets in the restrooms in the parish Hall have been replaced.
- Additional soap and tissue holders were installed in the Parish Hall bathrooms this past week.

We will keep you informed on these and all other matters about the properties. We welcome feedback, complaints and other comments about how to make the properties better.

If anyone can assist with projects (plumbers, electricians, carpenters, gardeners), please let us know.

Actualizaciones en las propiedades de la Iglesia:

- Indudablemente has notado en varias ocasiones que no había calor en la Iglesia. Originalmente, el problema era la acumulación de lodos en el tanque de aceite que se alimentaba a la caldera, bloqueando el suministro de aceite al quemador. Ese problema sigue ahí. Sin embargo, los últimos incidentes se debieron al agua en el tanque. Estamos en medio de diagnosticar de dónde viene el agua.
 - Al mismo tiempo, estamos verificando la salud de nuestros sistemas de aire acondicionado. Descubriremos qué se debe hacer para que sigan funcionando tan bien como su edad lo permita.
 - La rampa que conduce a la Iglesia se reparará a partir del 27 de mayo. Al mismo tiempo, se extenderá hasta el pórtico de la Rectoría.
 - Los lavabos en el salón parroquial están siendo reemplazados y deberían estar completos cuando leas esto.
 - Estamos estudiando abordar el problema con la basura durante los fines de semana. Probablemente involucre un contenedor adicional conveniente para el Salón Parroquial.
 - Se instalarán soportes de jabón y pañuelos adicionales en los baños de Hall.
- Le mantendremos informado sobre estos y otros asuntos relacionados con las propiedades. Agradecemos sus comentarios, quejas y otros comentarios sobre cómo mejorar las propiedades. Si alguien puede ayudar con proyectos (plomeros, electricistas, carpinteros, jardineros), háganoslo saber.

“In the Memories of “Rainie Brooks”

May 26, 2019 – Sixth Sunday of Easter*Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson*

Most goodbyes bear more than a touch of melancholy. There seems to be so much pain in the process. We've all seen on TV the tearful hugs and kisses exchanged when a young soldier takes leave of family and friends before boarding the plane that will take him or her to faraway assignments. Tomorrow, Memorial Day, we will honor all those heroic men and women who said goodbye and went off to war but never came back. There are countless other necessary goodbyes in our lives, perhaps less stressful but always marked by sadness. Somehow when they have to happen as part of our lives we wish otherwise. You could say that they give us one more reason to "scold Adam and Eve" for their misbehavior! Somehow we know that such things were not part of the original scheme of things. Yet not all goodbyes are all bad, even if a bit sad. Children have to leave their parents so that they can live out their own dreams and the adventure of life. For friends who must separate from us it is the same. A worthy consolation is the fact that such absences make our hearts grow fonder.

In this weekend's Gospel, we learn that Jesus had to leave His chosen Twelve. We also know His leaving has a kind of "mission accomplished" ring to it. Since the evangelists have no interest in the kind of biographical details and the emotions we search for in a modern biography, we have to use our imaginations. Surely the Apostles had to be somewhat downhearted about their Master's departure. They were only human, after all. Our Lord told them the news in a straight from the shoulder way, and added that if their love for Him was real, it would only be proven if they rejoiced that He was going to the Father. Rejoiced? That seemed at first to be so contradictory.

But the Lord's leaving them physically had at least two beneficial effects. First, they would be able to realize their full potential as Christ's emissaries. Second, it would bring about the arrival of the Paraclete, the Holy Spirit. He in turn would enlighten them further all that Jesus' coming meant for the world. He would be there to guide them in confronting the problems of their own time as Jesus would had He stayed. This, by the way, is still the role the Holy Spirit plays in the life of Church today.
