Orar por los Muertos es parte de nuestra creencia en la Comunión de Los Santos que oramos los unos por los otros. Los que han muerto siguen siendo miembros de la Comunión de los Santos. Creemos que podemos ayudar a través de nuestras oraciones y ellos pueden ayudarnos con las suyas. Durante el mes de noviembre reservamos tiempo para orar por todos los fieles difuntos. El 2 de noviembre de 2019, Día de los Difuntos, recordamos y oramos por todos los difuntos, especialmente por nuestros familiares y amigos. Hay sobres del Día de los Difuntos en la parte posterior de la Iglesia. Escriba los nombres de las personas que desea recordar, incluya su donación y devuélvalos en la canasta de recolección o en la Rectoría. Estos sobres permanecerán en el altar por el mes de noviembre.

RCIA- Rito de Iniciación Cristiana para Adultos- El Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos (RCIA) es un proceso establecido por la Iglesia para que los individuos se vuelvan católicos y reciban los sacramentos de iniciación-Bautismo, Confirmación y Eucaristía. Este proceso de iniciación también involucra a una comunidad parroquial experimentando una renovación en la fe mientras prepara y recibe a nuevos miembros en la Iglesia. El Rito habla de la conversión como un "viaje espiritual", centrado en fomentar una profunda relación con Jesús. ¿Es usted alguien o conoce a alguien que ha expresado su interés en ser católico? ¿Tiene un adolescente que no ha sido bautizado? ¿Fue bautizado católico como un niño, pero no ha celebrado los Sacramentos de la Confirmación y la Eucaristía? Ofrecemos la oportunidad de reunirnos en un pequeño grupo para aprender más acerca de nuestra fe. Las sesiones se enfocan en las enseñanzas y experiencias de la Iglesia y preparan a los individuos para celebrar los Sacramentos Bautismo, Confirmación, y Eucaristía durante la Pascua. Le invitamos a participar en el proceso del Rito de la Iniciación Cristiana con sus preguntas, sus ideas y su historia de fe en un ambiente acogedor. Para obtener información, comuníquese con Deacon Joe al 914-664-5855.

October 13, 2019 – Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Widely considered one of the cornerstones of western classical music, Beethoven’s fifth symphony is one of the most frequently played, and most easily recognized. Its four opening notes are known worldwide, and they can be heard even in commercials and other pop culture versions. We can probably all hum the “short, short, short long” notes of it if we want, perhaps ahead of some big announcement. Similarly does St. Luke’s gospel, also a cornerstone of our faith, has a consistent theme that runs through it. Not a musical one, of course, but one of mercy and healing written for Gentiles, all those non-Jewish readers of the time. Luke’s masterpiece is from the outset a message of good news to the wide world, beyond that of the Jews. In this weekend’s selection, Jesus has already started on His long journey to Jerusalem, a main thread of Luke’s writing leading to Holy Week. Along His way, He now comes to Samaria, land of the people so hated by the Jews. There He meets ten lepers and cures them. But, to His dismay, only one healed man comes back to thank Him. A disgraceful 10 percent gratitude return! And who is the man but a Samaritan! He is the first of two “Good Samaritans” Jesus will talk about. We will hear this story again in about 6 weeks in the Readings for Mass on Thanksgiving Day. For now, please concentrate, if you will, on Our Lord’s very human reaction. You can almost hear it in His voice. “Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has no one but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?” Note two things here. First, that Jesus doesn’t use the word ‘Samaritan’, out of kindness or perhaps to avoid any hint of racism. Secondly, He gives the credit to God for the cure, although He later will reveal that He could have said it of Himself. Do you also hear sadness in His voice, one that often comes when love is unrequited? I can even imagine putting those feelings as a lyric to fit Beethoven’s famous four notes: “O Look how sad!” That question “Where are the other nine?” has a way of rolling down the centuries right to us. In a way, it embraces all the ingratitude to God that we his free-willed creatures, massed since creation. Sadly, that number includes most of us at times. We have been given so much by our good God, and yet our prayers mostly include requests for even more. Here is one of those rhetorical questions characteristic of homilies and waiting for the hearer’s answer: “Are you grateful to God?” If we’re honest with ourselves, our answer could prove embarrassing, leading us to a form of despair. But the good news is that our God loves us too much to hold our discourtesy over our heads. One sincere act of contrition, followed by praise of Him for His unfathomable goodness to us, you and me, and He smiles and reaches out to hug us as only He can. Back to Beethoven for a closing. I know nothing of that man’s religion, but I have to wonder whether or not he was a man who revered the Lord. Was he grateful? Note that he was already growing deaf when he wrote his fifth symphony sometime between 1804 and 1808. That sad condition was to be his until the end of his productive life as a master composer. But even though he never heard the actual notes played on an instrument, not to mention the audience applause afterward, he had the gift of “hearing” the notes in his brain as he wrote. More than enough to thank God.
