ABUSE SURVIVORS: We are grateful you are here today. We are sorry for the intense pain you suffer. We know there are many types of abuse; including sexual, physical, emotional and psychological. We hope you find this Church community a place of sensitivity that does not exacerbate your pain. We pray that you seek the support and help you need. We also pray that God holds you in His gentle loving hands and helps you to heal. Amen

Good and gracious God, physician and healer, we pray that you will lay your healing hands upon those who are sick and restore them back to health through your divine grace, love and compassion. In Jesus we pray. Amen

Little Portion Secular Franciscan Fraternity

The Little Portion Secular Franciscan Fraternity is made up of men and women who live in the world and are motivated by the dynamic power of the Gospel. They seek to encounter the living and active person of Christ by committing to live a life of prayer, community, simplicity, service, peace and justice as they pattern their lives after Christ in the spirit of Francis and Clare of Assisi. Secular Franciscans strive to live their lives by going from gospel to life and life to gospel. You are invited to join us at our gathering in the Parish Hall on Saturday, November 2 at 9:30 AM and to worship at the 9:00 a.m. Mass.

We are happy to announce that pledges made for Renew & Rebuild have reached \$172,940.00 from 79 parishioners. Thank you for your generosity.

THIS WEEKEND TODAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY. We celebrate this day by remembering our baptismal call - to bring the Gospel to all! The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith Ensures the work and service of the Mission Church, as it supports priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity.

Praying for the dead is part of our belief in the Communion of The Saint, we pray for each other. Those who have died continue to be members of the Communion of Saints. We believe we can assist them through our prayers and they can assist us by theirs. During the month of November, we set aside time to pray for all the Faithful Departed. On November 2, 2019 All Souls Day, we remember and pray for all the deceased, especially our own family members, and friends. There are All Souls Day envelopes in the vestibule of the Church. List the names of those you want to remember, include your donation and return them in the collection basket or at the Rectory. These envelopes will remain on the altar for the month of November.

~~ Desde El Escritorio Del Pastor ~~

Orar por los Muertos es parte de nuestra creencia en la Comunión de Los Santos que oramos los unos por los otros. Los que han muerto siguen siendo miembros de la Comunión de los Santos. Creemos que podemos ayudar a través de nuestras oraciones y ellos pueden ayudarnos con las suyas. Durante el mes de noviembre reservamos tiempo para orar por todos los fieles difuntos. El 2 de noviembre de 2019, Día de los Difuntos, recordamos y oramos por todos los difuntos, especialmente por nuestros familiares y amigos. Hay sobres del Día de los Difuntos en la parte posterior de la Iglesia. Escriba los nombres de las personas que desea recordar, incluya su donación y devuélvalos en la canasta de recolección o en la Rectoría. Estos sobres permanecerán en el altar por el mes de noviembre.

Nos complace anunciar que las promesas hechas para Renovar & Reconstruir han alcanzado $172,940.00 de 79 feligreses. Gracias por tu generosidad.

RCIA- Rito de Iniciación Cristiana para Adultos- El Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos (RCIA) es un proceso establecido por la Iglesia para que los individuos se vuelvan católicos y reciban los sacramentos de iniciación-Bautismo, Confirmación y Eucaristía. Este proceso de iniciación también involucra a una comunidad parroquial experimentando una renovación en la fe mientras prepara y recibe a nuevos miembros en la Iglesia. El Rito habla de la conversión como un "viaje espiritual", centrado en fomentar una profunda relación con Jesús. ¿Es usted alguien o conoce a alguien que ha expresado su interés en ser católico? ¿Tiene un adolescente que no ha sido bautizado? ¿Fue bautizado católico como un niño, pero no ha celebrado los Sacramentos de la Confirmación y la Eucaristía? Ofrecemos la oportunidad de reunirnos en un pequeño grupo para aprender más acerca de nuestra fe. Las sesiones se enfocan en las enseñanzas y experiencias de la Iglesia y preparan a los individuos para celebrar los Sacramentos Bautismo, Confirmación, y Eucaristía durante la Pascua. Le invitamos a participar en el proceso del Rito de la Iniciación Cristiana con sus preguntas, sus ideas y su historia de fe en un ambiente acogedor. Para obtener información, comuníquese con Deacon Joe al 914-664-5855.

October 20, 2019 – Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

You’ve seen them on their TV shows. The judges in official black robes, complete with the courtroom set, adjudicating cases of all kinds, and banging their gavels with authority. Add to them the various judges brought in by the cable news outlets to lend their expertise in comments on any number of headline-making stories. Audiences give these last special attentions even if they show up without the robes and the courtroom benches.

We know from Scripture that Our Lord Jesus did not have much time for judges and even lawyers. It seems that the ones He met were either shysters or hypocrites. Naturally, His disdain does not permit us to generalize negatively all our present-day judges and lawyers, although often enough the lesser members of their group generate negative headlines of their own. This weekend’s Gospel selection finds Jesus telling His own parable that features an unjust judge who nonetheless renders a just decision in a case brought by a widow. Bear in mind that such a woman was rather powerless in the patriarchal society Jesus inhabited. What makes the judge step out of character? The persistence of the widow. Jesus goes on to say that very quality should mark our prayer.

The First Reading from Exodus puts Moses’ persistence on display, in his persistence in holding up the rod of God over his army to encourage them, even though as a “senior citizen” he needed youthful help in keeping his arms lifted. We can be sure that people in Our Lord’s time were as impatient with God’s timetable as we are. The big difference is that in our so-called “First World” culture, life moves at a near breakneck pace thanks to our computerized gadgets. But then we also have our methods of weight loss that guarantee we will “lose 18 pounds in a month,” or medicine that allegedly brings relief immediately; instant coffee and quick mortgages,” ET cetera, et cetera.” The problem of impatience easily spills over into the spiritual realm and has its effects on our prayer. Some Christians become doubtful, Christians or even former Christians, when their prayer needs are seemingly unmet. Some Catholic Christians are the same way when they grow impatient with the pace of the Vatican. Yet I believe we all know deep down that persistence in prayer is the only way to go. And when our good God happens to answer “no” we have to accept that because in faith we believe He knows best. The good news is that He really does. History endorses persistence, indirectly voting for it as a quality of good prayer. Once upon a time a teenager had decided to quit high school, saying he was just fed up with it all. His father was trying to convince him to stay with it. “Son,” he said, you just can’t quit. All the people who are remembered in history didn’t quit. Abraham Lincoln didn’t quit. Thomas Edison, he didn’t quit. Douglas MacArthur, he didn’t quit. Elmo Mc Cringle....” “Who?” the son burst in. “Who’s Elmo Mc Cringle?” “See,” the father replied, “you don’t remember him. He quit!”
